THOMAS H. WEST, VETERAN BANKER, DIES AT HIS HOME

He Succumbs to Complications of Diseases After Two Weeks' Illness in His 80th Year.

WAS RESIDENT OF
ST. LOUIS 46 YEARS

Headed First Trust Company Founded Here in 1889 — Interested in Many Enterprises.

Thomas Henry West, veteran banker, who headed the first trust company founded in St. Louis, died at his home, 11 Westmoreland, at 3:30 p. m. yesterday, of complications of diseases, after two weeks' illness. He would have been 80 years old on July 27. Mr. West, born in a small Tennessee town, was a soldier of the Confederacy at the age of 16, serving in Gen. Ned Forrest's cavalry, and becoming a Captain later. The war ended. He went to war in place of his father, who was in poor health, and who died soon after the war, leaving him the only male member of a family of nine. The young man went to Louisville, his mother and sisters remaining at the old home. He went to work for a wholesale dry goods firm, first in stock, then as a house salesman. Seeing a chance for himself in the cotton business, after five years with the dry goods firm, he went to Mobile, where he went into business with James H. Allen, of Allen, West & Co.

Came to St. Louis in 1880. The firm was successful, and established offices in New Orleans, Memphis and St. Louis. The business here became the chief interest, and both Messrs. West and Allen removed to this city, the former in 1880.

In 1889, three wealthy St. Louisians, meeting at a summer home in Wisconsin, talked over the plan of founding a trust company. There was, at that time, no financial institution of that kind west of Cleveland. The conferees were E. C. Simmons, Capt. J. A. Scudder and Daniel M. Kennard. Daniel C. Allen and John T. Davis, two of the wealthiest St. Louisians of the time, though not at the meeting, were interested in the plan.

It was decided to ask Mr. West to become head of a trust company. He accepted, on condition that Mr. Davis should be the first vice president. The St. Louis Trust Co., with a capital of $500,000, was opened in a small room of the desirable building, Sixth and Locust streets. It was a money-maker from the beginning, and other trust companies soon sprang up.

Career in Business Here. The Union Trust Co. became an active competitor of the St. Louis Trust Co. In 1902 the two were consolidated, with Mr. West as president. He served as president until 1909, and thereafter as chairman of the board of directors until 1916. Early in that year, after a severe illness which permanently affected his health, Mr. West resigned as president, remaining a director of the St. Louis Union. At the same time he withdrew from the directorates of the Laclede Gas Light Co., American Car and Foundry Co., and Wagner Electric Co. He became and remained a director of the First National Bank.

Mr. West was one of the largest St. Louis stockholders of the Frisco railroad system, and was a director of the Frisco before the reorganization of that road began in 1915. He was named co-receiver of the Frisco with B. L. Winchell, a practical railroad executive, and in 1914 he resigned as receiver and as a director of the corporation.

In the war period, Mr. West was one of the most active and effective supporters of the Liberty bond campaigns. In the second campaign, made in the fall of 1917, he personally purchased $250,000 of the bonds, declaring his faith in them as an investment. He was made chairman of the St. Louis committee in the third Liberty bond campaign, and bought $150,000 of the bonds in that campaign. Contributed to Red Cross. Early in the war he began making large contributions to the Red Cross, and through most of the period he is said to have given the Red Cross $1000 a month. In the late eighties, when Van-Allen place still was the residential place of St. Louis, Mr. West was one of three men who bought what had been a dairy farm, just west of Kingshighway, and established Westmoreland and the former.

He was married in 1868 to Miss

1200 ENROLLED AT OPENING OF MILITARY CAMP

Citizens' Training Recruits
at Jefferson Barracks Will Spend Month Under Army Discipline.

MOSTLY FIRST-YEAR
MEN UNDER 20 YEARS

Fifty Reserve and Regular Officers in Charge—Official Inspection Day Set
for Aug. 4.

They're "in the army now, and not behind the plow." They seem rather glad of it. By "they" is meant the 1200 or more members of the younger generation who today are voluntarily entering a month of military service at Jefferson Barracks in the Citizens' Military Training Camp. For most of them it is a vacation lark.

Detaining from points in Missouri, Arkansas and Southern Illinois this morning, a swarm of youths from 17 to 24, but mostly under 20, invaded the khaki tented city on the parade ground at the barracks. For a month they will live at Uncle Sam's expense and be taught the rudiments of military tactics. The camp will close August 6 and those young men who have attended similar camps for three successive years prior to this one will be awarded commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Officers' Reserve Corps. It takes a month each summer for four years to win a reserve commission, the student going through four courses known as the basic, red, white and blue courses.

Majority Are First Year Men.
At least two-thirds of the total enrollment in this summer's camp is made up of first year men. There are to be nine companies of infantry, six basic and three advanced; and one company of field artillery. The young soldiers will be drilled by more than 60 reserve and regular army officers, while having as patterns of military deportment the regulars of the Sixth United States Infantry which is stationed at the barracks.

If you happen to be a youngster with nothing to do in summertime and you think you'll like soldiering, you draw transportation and sustenance from the Government and shove off for a citizens' military training camp. If you can hike to Jefferson Barracks, that's no money saved. Among the arrivals for the camp at the barracks were Carroll Havens and Joe Henson of Conway, Ark., who hiked to camp in three days. Three other boys came in from North Dakota. They had been assigned to camp at Fort Snelling, Minn., but decided to come to the barracks and pay the difference in transportation. Youths from Nebraska and Tennessee were among the arrivals this morning.

Start of "Processing."
Well, there you are at camp and there's the army. Officers call entering the army "processing," and when the process works it is termed "proper functioning." The processing began this morning with a long line of youths which wound into a tent, or rather a series of tents. You strip off all your clothes, first, and stuff them into a white canvas bag. Then you pass single file down a line of army medics, from one tent to another. You are weighed and measured.

After being "processed" the newcomers were assigned companies and told to report to such and such company street in the city of tents. There they were supplied with coats and blankets and grouped six boys to a tent. Uniforms were fitted (that's a joke) and the young cits-

Showers Mar Coolidge's Second Day in Camp

Woodland Rambles, Boat Rides and Movie

Magistrate in Adirondacks.

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., July 8.—The ideal weather of yesterday at the Summer White House was broken today by showers, after a night in which the thermometer dropped to 40, while clouds and mists hung low over the neighboring mountains.

The executive offices began operations today. Secretary Sanders taking up his duties there. Mail was received by pouch from the White House and was forwarded to President Coolidge at the camp. It was indicated that the mail was only of a routine character.

Press clippings and newspapers were also sent to the camp, that the President might keep fully informed of events in the outside world.

Later it was learned that the President took a walk in the rain about the camp, and then went indoors to spend the rest of the morning in going over mail and newspapers.

The Coolidges plan to spend at least the next few days quietly, without guests or other companions than the household servants, Secret Service men and the two white collies.

The President apparently is pleased with the prospects of a quiet summer and is planning on as much relaxation as possible during the two months he is expected to be camping de luxe at Irwin R. Kirkwood estate. With Mrs. Coolidge he has already explored many of the paths that wind among the white birches and pines and has visited some of the thirty-odd buildings on the camp property.

Prudence Prim and Rob Roy, the white collies, have been lively companions on these strolls, taking great delight in making independent sallies into the woods.

Boating, it is expected, will be a favorite pastime of the President and his family. The President is expected to be a frequent boater on the lake.

Up at 5:15 A. M., about 10 P. M., according to General Orders No. 29, reveille is at 5:15 a. m. Which means, when the gun booms shortly after daybreak you roll out and scramble into your clothes in 15 minutes so as to report at assembly in your company street at 5:30.

If you're late, you'll be listed as A. W. O. L. (absent without leave) and spend the rest of the day peeling potatoes. Mess call is at 5:55 a. m., and assembly in the huge mess hall, especially constructed for the camp, at 6 o'clock. First call for drill sounds at 6:35 and at 7 o'clock there is drill at assembly. From then until 11:50 there is virtually nothing to do but drill with a nine-pound Springfield in the summer sunshine, mount the guard and prepare for dinner at 12:15. The afternoon is occupied by guard mounting, drill, inspection and fatigue call, leaving about three hours for recreation.

Supper is at 5:30 and tattoo sounds at 9 p. m. The call to quarters comes 45 minutes later, with taps at 10 p. m.

Inspection Day Aug. 4.
Sunday's will be a little easier. The boys are allowed to get up an hour later in the morning and there are no drills. Visitors will be permitted at the camp on all days but Aug. 4, which has been named by Col. Moor N. Falls, commandant of Jefferson Barracks, as the official inspection day. There will be formations and dress parade on this day with a complete review of the citizen soldiers. The Red Cross has planned several dances, and Phil Ball, owner of the Brown's, has invited the whole contingent to attend the Brown's games on July 28, 31 and Aug. 1.

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., July 8.—In the first of his military duties, President Coolidge has made arrangements for films to be shown in his camp here this summer. It is planned to have two or three pictures each week, the portable projectors used on the presidential yacht Mayflower during his week-end cruises having been brought here for that purpose. Films, many of them comedies, a type of picture the President and Mrs. Coolidge both enjoy, are to be sent to White Pine Camp regularly.

RUMOR MONGERS CAST DOUBT UPON COOLIDGE'S FISH
(Copyright, 1926.)
PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., July 8.—Incredulity often attaches a fish story and the tale of those who accompanied President Coolidge's first venture with rod and reel on the still waters of Osgood Lake has met the usual reception. Was it a pickered or was it a pike? Did the President catch it or did Oscar Otis, native extraordinary, who knows every fish hereabouts by its first name?

First the rumors were that the President, loitering about on the bridge near his camp, saw Otis struggling with a fish that wriggled loose, whereupon he became ambitious to try his luck. A small boat carried the President and Otis out a short distance from shore. The President was rewarded after an hour of patient waiting.

Mr. Coolidge went unannounced. He had hinted that he might catch a fish but the newspaper men and photographers were taken by surprise. Nor did he exhibit the usual boastfulness of the newcomer. He modestly said nothing about it and this, too, despite the fact that a year or so ago he caused the fishing tackle industry a little worry by sundry remarks about grown men and alleged waste of time fishing. The other day Mr. Coolidge took occasion to erase the wrong impression his comments had made.

Pike 15 Inches Long.
But long after dark the rumors spread and the correspondents wanted to know, whereupon the Secret Service men consulted with Everett Saunders, the President's private secretary, and it was decided to announce officially that the President had caught a fish.

Since this is the first fish caught by Mr. Coolidge since he became President there was natural curiosity as to its weight and dimensions. Saunders thought it was a pike and that it was about 15 inches long, weighing perhaps 3½ pounds.

But since no scales were nearby, and since pickered predominates hereabouts, the story arose that maybe it wasn't a pike after all. Nobody stopped long enough to verify this point as the presidential catch was put in the pantry. The fish simply went the way of the others to the kitchen of White Pine Camp and was it known that any other fish seeking the honor of becoming entangled on the Presidential hook will find a similar fate.

For Mr. Coolidge professes an enthusiasm for fishing after his first day's outing. The solitude appeals to him, and so do the cool breezes on these mountain lakes. It's remote from all such things as farm relief and world-wide primaries and politics. He might with a few days of fishing detach himself as completely from the world as did Grover Cleveland. And Mr. Coolidge has reached that point in his experience where the Presidential job to realize that complete change of scene and relief from the strain of constant conferences and reading mail is a necessity for a few weeks in the year anyhow.

Would You Like Another Blanket?
That may sound funny to you in town, but you will want an extra blanket at Adirondack Camp. While you lie awake nights trying to keep cool in St. Louis, the Ambassador is serving extra blankets to keep his guests warm. By day they cool off on the finest bathing beach in the world—and at bedtime Nature turns on a drama of breezes that makes an electric fan look ridiculous.

$500,000 FIRE IN EAST ST. LOUIS FOUNDRY PLANT

Bursting Oil Pipe Starts
Blaze Which Destroyed Machine Shop of Southern Malleable Iron Co.

The bursting of an oil pipe in the plant of the Southern Malleable Iron Co., at Twenty-first and Bond streets, East St. Louis, at 8 a. m. today, started a fire which destroyed the company's machine shop and a large part of its adjoining warehouse. The total property loss, including costly patterns and machinery, was estimated at $500,000 by officers of the company.

The fire started near the roof of the machine shop over an annealing oven which was in operation at the time. The pipe was used to transport fuel oil through the building. When it burst, oil was scattered through the structure, transforming the interior into a roaring furnace within a few minutes.

Employee Burned.
The concern employed about 125 men who fled to the street as the fire began. A Negro laborer, Robert Harrison, was burned about the hands and face in an attempt to repair the break in the oil line.

The entire East St. Louis fire department answered the alarm but the flames had spread so rapidly that Fire Chief James Whalen ordered the firemen to center their efforts on the office building which was damaged only by smoke and water. The foundry building, occupying nearly the entire block, was completely destroyed. Only a small part of the warehouse was saved.

Firemen Injured.
In fighting the fire, Capt. Thomas Burke on Engine Company No. 3 was overcome by heat and removed to St. Mary's Hospital, and Pipeman George Humphreys was cut on the hands by flying glass.

The foundry was acquired by the Southern company two years ago, when it was organized under the laws of Missouri, with a capital of $225,000. R. B. Culver is president of the company, and E. R. Culver and R. S. Bradshaw vice presidents. The loss is covered by insurance.

As becomes official custom, certain details were forthcoming. It was denied, for instance, that the President tossed the first catch back out of sheer sympathy, and it was also denied that the fish was specially prepared for exhibit at the Smithsonian Institution where the first trophies of other presidential adventurers have gone.

Mrs. Budlong Jarred by Witnesses

which she went to her husband's apartment at 125 East Seventy-second street, New York, and conducted the famous "silk shirt stage." Mrs. Budlong shifted back to the recital of alleged cruelties.

Q. What other cruelties were inflicted on you by Mrs. Budlong that you did not tell the Court yesterday? A. I have forgotten the exact year, but there was a party at the Biltmore Hotel at which were S. D. Walden, Mr. Tomlinson, Mrs. Anthony and one or two others that I can't recall, and part of them were sitting at the table next to ours. Because I asked Mrs. Anthony to dance before I asked you, you got up and left the party, embarrassing me very much.

Q. Can you remember any others? A. In the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Grace and Mr. Murphy in the St. Regis Hotel in New York city, you had one of your mean spells and hurt me very much.

Q. Can't you recall exactly what Mrs. Budlong said or did that hurt you so? A. No, I can't recall exactly what she said.

Q. How did you feel about the incident? A. I felt that I was being humiliated. I felt that I was being treated as a plaything.

Q. Did you ever say to any of our friends your wife was crazy? A. No.

Q. Did you ever say you thought she was crazy? (Objection was taken and sustained.) Q. Didn't you ask her if she would go to a mental physician? A. No.

Q. Didn't you say to Mrs. Budlong in Providence this last spring that you liked to talk to Mrs. Budlong when she talked rationally? A. No, I said I liked to talk to her when she was in a certain frame of mind.

Q. Didn't you ever tell your daughter you thought your wife was crazy? A. I don't recall.

Q. (Abruptly) Do you admit you kissed the waitress in the dining room at the Reef? (The Budlongs' Newport home.) A. Never any servant at any time.

Social Progress at Newport.
Q. How did Mr. Talier (T. S. Sutherland, Newport and New York society man) help you and Mrs. Budlong socially? A. He introduced me to the governors of the Newport Country Club and introduced my application for membership and got other members of the board also to endorse me and I was elected. He also put me up for membership in Bailey's Beach and arranged so I could buy a couple of bath houses there and introduced me to a couple of people there.

Q. And on that occasion you fulfilled all the obligations of a kind, gentle, loving husband? A. Yes, I never said I was perfect.

Q. You acted just as a man of your sensitive nature should? A. Yes.

The cross-examination of Budlong was interrupted at the afternoon session to permit Arthur E. Corbin of Westport, Conn., a former associate of his in the Packard Motor Car Co. of New York and Edwin B. Jackson, an automobile dealer of Philadelphia, to testify in the petitioner's behalf.

Guests Made Uncomfortable.
"Mrs. Budlong was almost always a very charming hostess, but there were occasions when the atmosphere was very tense," Corbin testified, "there were conversations on the subject of money frequently, and it always made us feel very uncomfortable the way Mrs. Budlong went after Mr. Budlong. She would say he didn't give her the things she ought to have. She said once she thought her husband ought to go 50-50 with her on his money."

Q. Did you see Budlong after the incidents in New York in February, 1925? (referring to the apartment scene when Mrs. Budlong threw out messages written on her husband's silk shirts.) A. Yes, I saw him at the Sulgrave Hotel, where he was living about that time. He was so ashamed. He was in very bad shape. In a terrible mental condition, and we really feared for his mind. He said he didn't want to see anybody and nobody would want to see him. We finally got him to go into the country for a few weeks.

Jackson's testimony was in the same vein. He told of attending a performance of the "Ziegfeld Follies" soon after the "silk shirt siege," at which Will Rogers appeared with a white silk shirt. "This isn't mine," he quoted the comedian as saying. "It is one of Budlong's." "The audience was convulsed and I hung my head," he concluded.

Resuming cross-examination of her husband, Mrs. Budlong asked: Q. Did you ever say to any of our friends your wife was crazy? A. No.

Q. Did you ever say you thought she was crazy? (Objection was taken and sustained.) Q. Didn't you ask her if she would go to a mental physician? A. No.

Q. (Abruptly) Do you admit you kissed the waitress in the dining room at the Reef? (The Budlongs' Newport home.) A. Never any servant at any time.

The Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—A grand jury has indicted W. Mitchell of Indianapolis, president of the International Stone Cutters' Association, and four other representatives, on charges of violating the Sherman antitrust law.

It is charged that the defendants conspired to keep out of the business of the building trade unions they represent, and with the Building Trades Council of Westchester County, through a combination and conspiracy, control the installation of stone in all buildings within the metropolitan district. The unions represented by the defendants are said to include 10,000 skilled workers.

Other defendants named in the indictment are Joseph Wall, secretary of the executive board of the International Stone Cutters' Association; John C. Ryan, president of the North American Association of Stone Cutters; and Thomas O. L. Sullivan, president of the Building Trades Council of Westchester County.

The grand jury investigation was conducted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Royce Kenyon.

Evidence was presented, it was said by Royce, which showed that the defendants conspired to keep out of the business of the building trade unions they represent, and with the Building Trades Council of Westchester County, through a combination and conspiracy, control the installation of stone in all buildings within the metropolitan district.

NEW FOREIGN LOANS TOTAL $432,658,200 IN 6 MONTHS

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Foreign American loans to foreign governments and corporations total $432,658,200 in new capital during the first half of 1926, when 109 foreign security issues were placed on the American market. This figure, the Commerce Department announced today, compares with $437,265,000 for the same period last year, and $225,915,000 for the first six months of 1924.

Although Canada led other countries in the number of issues, with 26, the domination ranked third in the amount of new loans obtained with $102,715,000. A total of $11,000,000 of Canadian issues was used for refunding. Germany, with 38 issues, was first, selling $159,720,500 all in new issues, and the American market, while leading in the number of issues, obtained $114,370,000 in new issues while issuing $61,774,000 for refunding purposes.

Foreign borrowers in Europe, exclusive of Germany marketed 11 issues and obtained $48,882,800 in new capital, and using $8,000,000 for refunding, while countries in the far East sold $6,370,700 of new securities here and used $3,419,300 for refunding loans on five issues.

The Department's statement showed a 20 per cent increase in American purchases of German corporate issues over the second half of 1925, although German Government issues declined about 40 per cent. During the two years, and a half ending June 30, it was added, American underwriters took fully a half billion dollars of German securities.

Foreign securities sold on the American market during the last five years, after deducting for refunding, totaled $553,000,000. In 1921: $734,000,000 in 1922: $288,000,000 in 1923: $278,000,000 in 1924, and $1,011,207,000 in 1925.

Suit Over Victor Lawson's Will.
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—Hearing of the suit to construe the will of the late Victor F. Lawson, owner of the Chicago Daily News, on petition of Iver N. Lawson of San Diego, Cal., a brother of the deceased, has been set for Sept. 20. The California man was made a beneficiary by the will of his brother in two trust funds, one of approximately $1,000,000 and the other of $300,000. His suit seeks to determine from what funds income taxes and State inheritance taxes of approximately $215,000 are to be paid.

NORRIS URGES ELECTION OF VARE'S DEMOCRATIC OPPONENT

G. O. P. Senator From Nebraska Says It Is Only Way Pennsylvania Can Rebuke Corruption.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Pennsylvania cannot remedy her political situation by waiting for the Senate to reject William S. Vare, in the opinion of Senator George W. Norris (Rep.) of Nebraska. The Senator, who recently resigned from the Senate's Agricultural Committee chairmanship to be "free and unhampered," expresses that opinion in an article which is to be published in "The Nation." He said, "I am of the belief that if Vare is rejected by the Senate, the 'only result' would be to install a man selected by Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, thus giving to the highest bidder the prize after all."

POLICE OFFICERS FREED OF CONTEMPT OF COURT CHARGE

Chief and Four Others Found Not to Have Violated Injunction Obtained by Attorney.

Chief of Police Gerk and four officers of the Police Department were before Circuit Judge Mix today charged with contempt because Probationary Patrolman James Lanigan arrested Karl E. Lubke, attorney, when he parked in front of a vacant lot near the home of his father-in-law, Charles H. Nelson, of 5768 De Giverville avenue. Parking is forbidden in that block under a city ordinance passed recently at the instance of residents who complained that motorists using the curb service of Joe Garavelli's cafe made unnecessary noises. Lubke obtained a restraining order against the police permitting him to park in front of Nelson's home.

Judge Mix dismissed the charge against Gerk, Capt. Martin O'Brien, Lieut. James McMullen and Patrolman Flanagan, ruling that Lubke had a right to park in front of No. 5768 but nowhere else in the block.

EXPECTS LOANS TO AID U. S. Secretary Mellon Says Most of Funds Increase Production.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Continued extension of loans to foreign borrowers by American bankers is regarded by Secretary Mellon as bound to react to the benefit of the United States.

The Secretary noted today that most of the $433,000,000 loaned abroad during the first six months of this year, as announced by the Commerce Department is going into productive enterprise. As a result he believes Europe soon will be re-established economically and become one of America's best customers. He also sees some good in the increased imports from abroad, regarding it as a natural flow of trade which is best for the world.

GRANITE CITY STRIKER SHOT He Is Given Emergency Treatment—Refuses to Talk.

A man, describing himself as Roy Pinkerton, 30 years old, of 2209 Ohio avenue, Granite City, Ill., went to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Granite City, at 5 p. m. yesterday with a bullet wound in the right side of his neck. He had been given emergency treatment by a Madison physician.

He refused to tell police how he was shot, but the police say they learned he was shot while west of the city, near the levee. The bullet came out through his mouth. He is among workers who went on strike at the National Enameling & Stamping Co. plant more than a month ago.

KING GEORGE A RADIO FAN Stamp Collection Put Aside for Joy of Listening.

LONDON, July 8.—The routine of royalty has been altered by radio just as it has changed the habits of millions of other people throughout the world.

Whereas King George, formerly, spent many an evening over his postage stamp collection, now, with wireless sets in Buckingham Palace and Windsor Castle, his majesty often listens in to what the radio waves are saying. Queen Mary, too, is fond of the wireless. Both prefer ear phones to loud speakers.

CLAYTON DOME REPAIRED Ornament on Courthouse Will Not Be Removed.

The dome of the county courthouse at Clayton has been repaired, strengthened and painted, and will not be removed, as was announced last April by the County Court.

The dome, a notable landmark for almost half a century, visible for miles around, had weakened with age and swayed in high winds. As a measure of safety it was planned to dismantle it. But it was found it could be made safe.

Missouri Tourists Injured.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 8.—Mrs. Dora Lanphier and Miss Minnie Arp, both of Monroe County, Mo., were injured painfully when the car in which they were riding was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. George Johnson of Geneva, Wis., yesterday. Mrs. Lanphier received a cut on the forehead and bruises, and Miss Arp was cut in the face and leg and received injuries on the chest and shoulder. They are in the hospital here.

Man Can't Tell Who Stabbed Him. Weakened from loss of blood due to a stab wound in the arm, William Brown, 38 years old, of 2828 O'ber avenue, a clerk for the Terminal Railroad, was taken to City Hospital yesterday after he had been found leaning against the wall of a saloon near 3800 North Broadway. He was unable to tell how he had been stabbed.

PAROLE RECALLS CASE THAT SHOCKED A CITY

Kansas Cityan Had Served 10 Years of 75-Year Term for Attack on Woman.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. KANSAS CITY, July 8.—Vic Gueringer, who has left the penitentiary on a parole, was sentenced in 1915 to serve 75 years for his part in the criminal attack upon Mrs. Gertrude Shidler at the headquarters of the notorious "1224 Grand Avenue Gang."

In the years between, Gueringer's friends—and he had many of them in Kansas City—had worked for his release. Many petitions had been sent to Governors, and other State officials were appealed to.

Mrs. Shidler, a nurse, was lured, so she alleged, into a room on the second floor at 1224 Grand avenue, a gambling resort then, where attacks were made upon her by a group of men. The women of Kansas City were shocked to know that such a crime could have been committed in a downtown place, apparently with full knowledge of the police.

Three Convicted in Case. Convicted with Gueringer were Maurice Lewkowitz, who was released by Gov. Hyde, and Oscar G. Harrison, who remains in the penitentiary. All three received the same sentence.

Gueringer's parole had been recommended by parole boards under the last three State administrations, his conduct in the penitentiary having been that of a model prisoner. The parole papers state that he has been of material assistance to the present board in eradicating the trade in narcotics within the prison.

In announcing the parole yesterday, Gov. Baker stated that he had received assurances from Mrs. G. C. Gaylord, Gueringer's sister, that she would assist Gueringer to go to some Western state and there make a new start.

There were charges that the gang had operated under countenance of the Police Department.

Defense of the Men. The defense of Gueringer, Lewkowitz and Harrison was that Mrs. Shidler was not lured to the gambling place; that she had gone there uninvited, knowing the character of the resort and the type of men who were there.

Since the conviction of the men and their imprisonment, the intense bitterness in the case has subsided.

In 1919 the Parole Board announced a hearing on a parole for Gueringer. Friends had fought long to prove that the convicted men were not guilty of the crime. It was shown that as much political pressure existed in the trial as had been functioning in the alleged protection given the gambling resort.

Many Appeals on File. Many letters and petitions were on the file in the parole office. W. T. Kemper, prominent Kansas City banker and politician, was one who wrote a letter in behalf of Gueringer. Lemkowitz and Harrison, saying he believed they had been "sufficiently punished."

So Gov. Baker approached the Gueringer parole with expressions from three Parole Boards, including that of the present, indicating that the board members entertained doubts that Gueringer was guilty. It was shown to the Governor that Gueringer was kept in prison largely because of the weight of public opinion in Kansas City, which had been shown to previous Governors. Clubs and clubwomen had deluged the executive offices with protests when the mention of a parole for Gueringer was made.

M'CORMICK STOCK IN COURT. Rockefeller Interests Oppose Collection of Dividends.

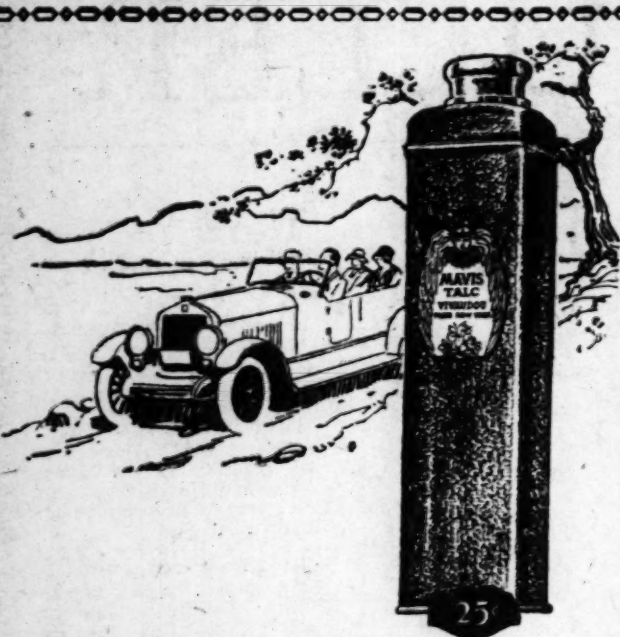

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 8.—Three organizations established by John D. Rockefeller oppose the payment to his daughter, Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick of $7,500,000 as stock dividends on stock of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, which was put in trust for her by her father in 1917. These are the Rockefeller Foundation, the Institute for medical research and the General Education Board.

The original trust consisted of shares which have been increased by new issues of stock paid as dividends. The trust company asks the court to rule what proportion of those stock dividends shall be considered. Capital and what proportion income. Harold F. McCormick, divorced husband of Rockefeller's daughter, opposes the payment to her of the $7,500,000. He and his children contend that the stock dividends should be added to the capital of the trust fund and not considered as income.

QUEEN ADOPTS PEASANT DRESS. Only on State Occasions Does Marie of Rumania Wear Silks.

By the Associated Press. BUCHAREST, July 8.—Queen Marie of Rumania, in the interest of economy and serviceability, has adopted Rumanian peasant dress. Only at court ceremonies or elaborate state occasions does she wear European silks or satins.

Even while riding to the streets of Bucharest she may be seen one day attired in the picturesque hand-embroidered linen costume of the peasant woman, with designs worked in gold, red or blue thread, with a flowing kerchief wound around her head, bright red-and-white, hand-knitted apron and red leather boots.

Mr. G. Drexel Biddle

A LEADER of today's younger set, Mr. Biddle is a scion of two noted families—the Drexels and the Biddles—who have long been prominent in the society of New York, Newport and Philadelphia.

Mr. Biddle is devoted to outdoor life and is an especially keen tennis player. As a means of refreshment after exercise, he is enthusiastic about Clicquot Club Ginger Ale.

"I will say frankly," said Mr. Biddle, "that I am a devotee of Clicquot Club Ginger Ale. There is nothing quite so refreshing after hard exercise as this sparkling drink."

"For a long time I had been drinking Clicquot before the new Pale Dry Clicquot came out. Now I use both kinds according to the mood and the occasion. Sometimes I want the vigorous, gingery taste of the regular Clicquot. At other times I am particularly pleased by the delicate, elusive flavor of the Pale Dry Clicquot. I like them both immensely."

Two flavors to choose from

A DRINK of most delicate flavor when taken alone, the Pale Dry Clicquot also blends its subtle personality perfectly with other drinks. The Golden Clicquot is of more pronounced flavor, the famous drink that has made ginger ale America's most popular beverage. The Clicquot Club Company, Millis, Massachusetts.

LOST AT GAMBLING,
BANKRUPT TESTIFIES

A. N. Karakas, Head of Defunct Candy Firm, Tells of Visit to Dice Game.

When his candy business ate up most of the $8000 which he invested in it, Achilles N. Karakas of 4749 Newberry Terrace, turned to gambling, where his capital could be smaller and his profits larger. But he lost at gambling also, he testified before Referee Coles in support of his bankruptcy petition.

Karakas, 36-year-old head of the defunct Karakas Wholesale Candy Co., 315 South Seventh street, yesterday identified a check for $350, payable to himself, as one which he drew recently to cover his loss in a dice game.

"Where was the game?" he was asked.

"On the Meramec," he answered. "How did you get in the game?"

"Some friends picked me up in their auto and took me there."

"Name the friends."

"I don't remember their names."

Karakas listed liabilities of $15,271 and assets of $9541. Shares of oil stock, for which he paid $500, are "worthless," Karakas admitted he had neglected his business toward the end, but said he did this rather than neglect his wife, who was ill at home. In his absence, he said, his uncle, Gus Karakas, and aunt, Pearl Karakas, managed the candy business. In reply to a question, he said he did not know whether his uncle previously entered bankruptcy while in the candy business.

Chemist Examined by Referee on His Plea of Bankruptcy.

Another bankrupt examined before Referee Coles was James Gaffney, a chemist of 2035 Park avenue, who listed liabilities of $14,000 and assets of $25. His brother, John Gaffney, a plumber, of the same address, and his late father, John Gaffney Sr., are discharged bankrupts.

James and John Gaffney and the latter's wife were questioned at length regarding several parcels of real estate, worth about $100,000, in which members of the Gaffney family formerly held equities, in their own names or in the name of L. B. Jackson, middle name of Mrs. John Gaffney. They testified that the holdings had been lost through foreclosure and denied that the properties were still held for them by "straw" persons.

Mrs. John Gaffney, who has lived at the Park avenue address for the last nine years, insisted she did not know who owned the property now or whether her family paid any rent for occupying the house which it formerly owned. She was nervous, she explained, and her relatives did not bother her with details. John Gaffney later testified that he paid $900 rent annually for the house to L. Angry, a banker of Palestine, Tex., who had foreclosed on this and other properties of the Gaffneys here. The examination was continued to permit taking of testimony in Texas. John Gaffney said he was ber of Commerce before becoming secretary of the Palestine Cham-a St. Louis plumber.

TO WHITEN SKIN
WITH LEMON JUICE

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orehard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quart of the most wonderful skin whitener, softer and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

TUBERCULOSIS DAY TICKETS
Women Will Sell Them on Exchange Floor for Baseball Game.
Tickets to the Tuberculosis Day baseball game, at Sportsman's Park Wednesday, will be sold tomorrow on the floor of the Merchants' Exchange by a group of women and girls, headed by Mrs. Crawford Duncan. Three hundred young women are to sell score card programs at the game. Several railroads and large establishments have promised to grant the necessary time off to employees who buy tickets to attend the game.

COURT RULES SELLING LIQUOR IS NOT DISORDERLY CONDUCT
Annals $25 Fine Imposed on Cafe Waiter by New York Magistrate.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—Selling liquor in violation of the law is not in itself an act of disorderly conduct. A disorderly conduct fine imposed by a magistrate on a "Turf Club" waiter for selling liquor was annulled on the ground that the waiter's act did not annoy, disturb or offend.

On Feb. 17 David Wade, the waiter, was taken before Magistrate Gordon and fined $25 for disorderly conduct, the only offense charged being sale of liquor. He was charged subsequently with violation of the Volstead act and fined $100 in the Federal Courts. Appeal was taken on the first conviction to three General Sessions Justices sitting as an Appeals Court, on the plea that the defendant had been placed in jeopardy twice for the same offense.

The Appeals Court decided yesterday that the only crime shown to have been committed was violation of the Volstead act, over which the magistrate had no jurisdiction.

In reversing the disorderly conduct conviction, the Appeals Court ruled: "It cannot be said that the acts of the defendant annoyed, or obstructed, or disturbed, or were offensive. Persons in the premises were also served with and were drinking intoxicating liquor and there is no evidence that they were annoyed, disturbed, interfered with or offended by such acts."

FORMER ALIEN PROPERTY CHIEF MUST STAND TRIAL FOR FRAUD
Court Refuses Pica of T. W. Miller, Who Is Caught in Trap of Daugherty's Own Making.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, July 8.—Federal Judge Mack has denied the motion made in behalf of the former alien property custodian, Thomas W. Miller, to dismiss the indictment charging Miller, together with former Attorney-General Daugherty and the late John T. King, with conspiracy to defraud the Government in connection with the $7,000,000 American Metals Co. case.

In ruling Miller must stand trial under the indictment, which was returned by a Federal grand jury May 7, as a result of the New York World's expose, Judge Mack dismissed the argument of Robert S. Johnston, Miller's attorney, that the statute of limitations for the offense alleged in the indictment is three instead of six years.

It was learned yesterday that Miller and Daugherty are losers because of an official act of Daugherty as Attorney-General.

The law extending the three-year statute of limitations, formerly governing all cases of alleged fraud against the Government was passed, United States District Attorney Buckner disclosed, at the insistence of Daugherty, who saw the fraud cases in which the Government was concerned piling up as one of the heritages of the World War, with no chance to dispose of them unless the time limit in the statute governing them was extended to six years. The extension was made and now Miller and Daugherty are caught in a trap of Daugherty's own making.

REQUEST FOR AID DISCLOSES THAT MOTORIST STOLE AUTO

Two Youths Driving From Indiana Arrested When They Inquire Way to Kansas City.

Two youths in a Ford automobile with an Indiana license stopped to inquire the way to Kansas City of two detectives near California and Chouteau avenues yesterday. The detectives interrogated the travelers and learned that the car had been stolen. The young men were locked up.

The driver said he was Alois Rowatt, 29, of Terre Haute, Ind. He said he had started west and had been given a ride by a salesman for a Chicago concern traveling in Indiana. In a small town, he said, the salesman left him for a few minutes and he drove off with the car. He said he picked up the other boy in Indiana.

Sample cases in the car indicate that the owner is J. A. Berry of Chicago, representing a breakfast food concern.

NEGRO MINISTER DIES OF WOUNDS SUFFERED IN FIGHT
Quarrel Started Over Sale of Silk Shirt for Church Poor Fund; Police Seek Assailant.

The Rev. John Jackson, 66 years old, a Negro Baptist minister and Deputy Constable, residing at 3983 Papin street, died last night at City Hospital No. 2 of stab wounds suffered July 4 in a room at 3996 Papin street.

Police are searching for Daniel Sexton, 31, a Negro, of the same address, named as the slayer. Officers were told that Sexton had been angry because a silk shirt belonging to him had been sold with other clothing for the benefit of the church's poor. A card game was in progress, it is said, when he assaulted the pastor, drawing a knife during the scuffle.

Snow in Northern Italy.
ROME, July 8.—Sunny Italy has seen less of the sun this summer than for a generation. Instead of the usual rainless period, beginning early in May and continuing until late September, Rome and Naples have had downpours almost daily. A violent storm broke over Naples last night, and Rome has had incessant rain for 24 hours. Northern Italy also is having bad weather. Snow 7 feet deep is reported in the valleys near Novara.

JARDINE DENIES HE WAS GRAIN PROMOTER

Says He Withstood Pressure of Farm Organization to Indorse Marketing Company.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Secretary Jardine has denied charges that he was one of the promoters of the grain marketing company and that he indorsed the Fess-Tincher farm bill because it was drafted "not only to enable the Government to finance the company but to legalize it."

The charges, made in a statement by William H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, and read in the Senate June 20 by Senator Wheeler (Dem.) of Montana, stirred the Secretary to write Settle a letter which was made public at Jardine's office yesterday.

"I cannot let go unanswered your charges as to my contract with the grain marketing company," Secretary Jardine said. "In the first place, similar charges are being made from other quarters and I am convinced that it is part of a deliberate campaign to discredit me and my indorsement of a legislative measure which I am positive is constructive and worth while. Secondly, Senate resolution 263 which was offered to inquire into my alleged grain connections and given wide publicity, was not acted upon by Congress before adjournment. Consequently, I do not have an opportunity to place before the public information to prove that the charges you make are absolutely without foundation. You could have secured the facts if you had taken the trouble to make an inquiry."

"On March 4, 1925, I refused to interpret the Capper-Volstead act to include the grain marketing company. This was contrary to the interpretation of your national organization, and I was charged with unfairness. I consistently withstood pressure from your national organization to indorse the grain marketing company as it was organized. Furthermore, I have insisted that all legislation, including the Fess-Tincher bill, should be limited to associations qualifying under the Capper-Volstead act. And yet you call me a 'promoter' and charge that the Fess-Tincher bill was drafted to finance and legalize the grain marketing company."

The Secretary quoted the record of his stand on farm legislation as demonstrating "the utter weakness of the statements that either the Secretary of Commerce or I have any interest in selling any grain business, or promoting any organization which does not come strictly within the Capper-Volstead act."

NEW YORK SUBWAY SENDS AGENTS TO UNION MEETING

Would Prevent "Key Men" Who Attend Strikers' Gatherings From Returning to Work.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—Precautions against sabotage, in the subway strike, were taken today by the Interborough Rapid Transit Co.

Agents of the company were sent last night to attend a meeting of the strikers. James L. Quackenbush, general counsel of the Interborough company, explained that the company wanted to know if any of its men occupying "key" positions were attending these meetings, so it could prevent them from returning to work where they might cripple the system.

No acts of violence have attracted special notice by the public. The company announces that one elevated train has been stoned and that passengers have been jarred through men familiar with the mechanism of trains setting the brakes suddenly. The police have not been called upon to act, however, in such cases. From the beginning of the strike, now in its third day, the 700 striking subway motormen and switchmen have expressed themselves as opposed to violence. Interborough officials say that subway service has improved.

FINED $25 FOR UNLIGHTED CAR

Three Collinsville Men, Unable to Pay, Sent to Jail.

James Mumper, Alvin Mumper and W. A. Hargrove, all of Collinsville, Ill., were fined $25 each by Justice of the Peace Bale at Edwardsville, Ill., yesterday on pleas of guilty to obstructing a state highway with an unlighted automobile. They were unable to pay the fines and were taken to the Madison County jail.

The three men were arrested at request of N. and Mrs. Bert Wilson of 4517 Field avenue, St. Louis, who were slightly injured Tuesday when an automobile in which they were driving overturned on the state highway east of Highland, Ill. Wilson said that in avoiding a collision with the machine containing the Mumpers and Hargrove, which was parked on the side of the road, unlighted, he became confused and lost control of his car, causing it to overturn.

Hangs Self Over Jail Joke.

By the Associated Press.
WEST NEW YORK, N. J., July 8.—Paul Bethaman, a weaver with a family, woke up in a cell and cried out to know why he was there. "Shut up," yelled another prisoner, "you're in for murder." There was silence and Bethaman was found to have strangled himself. He had been put into a cell to sleep off his intoxication.

LASHED UNCONSCIOUS TO FLOATING LOG

Nebraska Farmer Is Taken From Missouri River After Drifting 12 Hours.

By the Associated Press.
TUCKAHOE, Neb., July 8.—Bound hand and foot and tied to a log floating in the Missouri River, William Deckert, a young farmer and former air pilot in the German army, was taken alive from the river yesterday after having been in the water about 12 hours.

Police of two States are searching for Deckert's assailants, who, they believe, thought him dead when they lashed his unconscious form to a long and threw it into the stream.

Late last night, more than 12 hours after his rescue, Deckert had not recovered sufficiently from his experience to tell Sheriff Smith a coherent story of the attack. He had been beaten about the head. From mumbled utterances, physicians pieced together an account of an attack by three men who waylaid Deckert Monday night while he was homeward bound from Decatur, Neb., across the river from Omaha, where he had an island truck farm. While one stood before him with a pistol, the others struck him from behind.

Officers traced a few clues which pointed to robbery or arguments over farming land as possible motives for the crime.

WHITE HOUSE REPAIRS AND PAINTING BEGUN

New Electric Elevator to Replace 20-Year-Old Lift;
Work on Roof to Wait.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—With the President and Mrs. Coolidge settled at the summer White House in the Adirondacks, the executive mansion here is being prepared for as extensive an overhauling as the workmen can undertake with assurance that it will be completed
when the President returns.

While painters are busy with the exterior, reconditioning of the interior is receiving the attention of another group of workers.

Although the repair program
omitted for this year any alteration in the White House roof,
which has been declared by army
engineers to be unsafe and in danger of collapse, other changes will be made, including the replacement of the 20-year-old elevator
by an up-to-date electric automatic lift, as well as a refinishing of the east room and new paint for the other chambers. The President's office in the west wing will be left untouched, but the corridors and other rooms of that extension will be reconditioned.

The telephone and telephone lines, which have been installed to give direct connection between the executive's offices here and the summer White House, were opened yesterday with the announcement that the presidential party had arrived late but safely at its destination. Only reports of urgent character will be transmitted over the wires from this end during the President's absence, in order to interfere as little as possible with his vacation.

DRY AGENTS WANT AIRPLANES FOR SEARCH OF LIQUOR STILL

Photographs Taken by Flyers in Southeastern States Disclose Location of Moonshiners.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Airplane photographs, enlarged and placed under a magnifying glass,
have proved so valuable in disclosing illicit stills that M. O.
Dunning, prohibition co-ordinator for the Southeastern states, has requested the Government to supply air and seaplanes for this purpose.

Dunning's report that prohibition enforcement had improved 100 per cent in the last six months in the Southeastern states was made public with a report by Walton Green, chief of the prohibition investigators, who has announced his resignation, that the rum fleet
has been definitely scattered.

Dunning reported that airplanes already have demonstrated their value in prohibition enforcement sufficiently to warrant their use,
and he said that he would plot the whole of the Florida coast if additional planes were made available.
He has mapped a portion of the coast with the three seaplanes recently given him by the navy,
which were also helpful, he said,
in spotting rum runners off the coast.

Kiefer From Holdup.

A barking dog and a burglar alarm saved the jewelry store of Eugene W. Kiefer, 5204 Gravois avenue, from robbery at 10:30 a. m. today.

Three young men in an automobile parked at the front door, alighted and entered through the rear with drawn revolvers. Kiefer's dog began to bark. Mrs. Kiefer screamed, and the burglar touched a button sounding the alarm bell.
The robbers ran out the front door. They were seen driving east on Gravois at high speed.

AMERICAN'S SENTENCE UPHOLD

Son of Jockey O'Neill Must Serve Three Months in Prison.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, July 8.—The Court of Appeals has upheld the decision of a lower court sentencing Frank O'Neill, son of the American jockey, Frank O'Neill, to three months' imprisonment on a charge of reckless driving. The court also has ordered young O'Neill to pay 550,000 francs (about $16,000) as damages growing out of an automobile accident in August, 1924.

The higher court's decision was rendered despite the almost unprecedented withdrawal of the complaint by the plaintiffs. Five persons were injured and one man was killed when young O'Neill, driving an automobile, crashed into another machine. Jockey O'Neill formerly lived in St. Louis.

Fraud Charge in Florida Land Deal
CHICAGO, July 8.—Warrants for the arrest of G. Frank Croissant, real estate operator; A. Beneliah, a salesman for Croissant, and Sam Loeb, charging each with obtaining money under false pretenses and operating a confidence
game and conspiracy to defraud,
were issued last night on complaint of Mrs. Sophie Wasserman of Oak Park. Mrs. Wasserman took action after reading complaints recently made against Croissant by purchasers of Florida property. Loeb, she alleged, told her his representations were false and that he obtained 7 per cent on each sale.

BUS SKIDS INTO STREET CAR
Four Residents of Webster Groves Are Injured.

Four persons were cut and bruised at 5:30 p. m. yesterday when a bus of the St. Louis County Motorbus Co. skidded on the wet street and hit the rear end of a Manchester car trailer near Manchester and Prather avenues. The street had been made wet by a rainstorm shortly before.

The injured were Bert Reed, 22 years old, and his wife, 22, and Mrs. Laura Woods, 45, all of Al-

MISSOURI ON LIST OF REED COMMITTEE

Senator Says Plan Is to "Look Into" Campaigns in Every State.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, July 8.—Missouri will not be slighted by the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures and the political activities of the Antislavery League, Senator James A. Reed, chairman of the committee, declared last night.

Reed said the committee planned to "look into" the campaigns in every State, and that Missouri would not be excluded. A number of friends assembled in his room last night. They talked to him about the dinner to be given in Convention Hall in his honor tonight, under the sponsorship of the National Independence Union, organized to oppose American entry into the League of Nations.

"Well, a fellow at a home-coming dinner can't say much, just throw a few bouquets," the Senator said. A chorus of "noes" voted him down.

"Give 'em the warm old stuff; that's what they want to hear," Bennett Clark of St. Louis, who had dropped in, told the Senator. His motion carried. Senator Reed smiled, but did not commit himself.

The Senator mentioned the Antislavery League at some length. "I believe the Antislavery League is the crookedest organization in our political history," he said, "and second probably comes the management, not the membership, of the Women's Christian Temperance Union."

"Now, the league," the Senator said, "is operated by officers who in turn select the other members of the board of directors, who, in turn, select the officers. It's a perfect organization. These persons run the affairs on money they collect and they consider any question about their activities insulting because they usually precede their names with 'Reverend' or something of the like."

"Nobody objects to members of Congress earning money," he explained, "but when they are paid to go out and make speeches on matters they later will vote on in Congress, it's going too far. That's what they did for the league. Imagine the yell which would rise to heaven should the railroads hire a bunch of lawyers in Congress to work for them and later they voted on railroad legislation?"

WASHINGTON U. TO HAVE AVIATION GROUND SCHOOL
Course Will Be Opened at Beginning of Regular Fall Term Under Naval Air Officer.

Preparations are being made to inaugurate a general ground school course in aviation to begin with the regular fall term, at Washington University. Lieutenant-Commander H. W. Scofield, aviation aid to the commandant of the Ninth Naval District, with headquarters at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, arrived in St. Louis yesterday to conduct preparatory work for the course.

"The students will be given a comprehensive course in the principles of aeronautics in a series of lectures," Scofield declared. "In addition a mechanical laboratory will be established in which studies of the airplane's engine will be conducted. About 10 or 12 of the most proficient in the course will be sent to Great Lakes for 90 days' training, in which 100 hours will be spent in the air. If these men perform satisfactorily during this training they will receive commissions in the naval aviation service."

Scofield said that the course would be instituted at practically no cost to Washington University, declaring it was a part of a nation-wide program of the Navy Department to educate the public in the principles of aviation and at the same time discover material for the reserve.

BOYS CONFESS ROBBERY

POOR BOXES IN CHURCHES

They Spent Money for Ice Cream, Candy and Picture Shows.

Frequent looting of poor boxes in St. Pius Catholic Church, Grand boulevard and Utah street, and in Holy Family Catholic Church, Oak Hill avenue and Humphrey street, during recent weeks, yesterday caused police of Magnolia District to resort to unusual measures.

At 7 a. m. Patrolman C. J. Beckmann, in uniform, concealed himself in the confessional of St. Pius Church, where he waited until noon. At that hour he caught a 9-year-old boy removing coins from one of the boxes.

In the presence of Father Timothy Meagher the boy confessed looting the boxes in the church four times. He named a 13-year-old boy who admitted 15 or 16 robberies in St. Pius and Holy Name churches, and who named two other boys, 10 and 12 years old. They in turn said they had robbed the churches 10 or 12 times.

The boys said they spent their loot, ranging from 25 cents to $1 on each occasion, for ice cream, candy and picture shows. They were paroled to their parents pending hearings in Juvenile Court.

Authentic Period Grands
EXQUISITELY CARVED BY HAND

The originals of this model belong to an early period of Spanish history. The design shows clearly the strong Moorish influence which dominated Spanish architects and designers of this period.

Its tone, beautiful design, and sturdiness of construction make it a notable Grand Piano.

Today's trend in motor car buying

It is a widely accepted belief in the automobile industry that inside of two years the man who wants THE FINEST PERFORMANCE will buy eight cylinders as a matter of course.

That is half the picture of the new trend in motor car buying. The other half is this:

The day is definitely past when the buyer of REALLY FINE EIGHT-CYLINDER PERFORMANCE, embellished with a beautiful body, must pay the penalty of a high premium.

Hupmobile has shown a new way to build an eight-cylinder car that literally ranks above anything else in America—that American engineers compare with only one other car, and that a handbuilt European classic which costs several times the Hupmobile Eight price.

This is the carefully considered opinion of some of the shrewdest leaders in the industry.

The overwhelming success of the Hupmobile Eight—in sales as well as in mechanism and performance—has helped to bring about this new order of thinking.

The plain fact is that Hupmobile has got out of the eight-cylinder principle more than that principle had ever before been made to yield.

It is by no mere chance—indeed, it is highly significant—that Hupmobile builds into this Eight an airplane type of mechanism which costs far more than the ordinary, and retains its quiet and efficiency.

That one fact is significant of this eight's new kind of performance and stamina; of its utterly remarkable ability to respond perfectly month after month to every call upon it.

It is by no mere chance, either, that the Hupmobile Eight is more economical of gasoline than most sixes of comparable size.

Gasoline economy, oil economy—but above all, economy of maintenance—were designed into the car by those who have for upward of twenty years studied the principles of eight-cylinder construction.

Its low cost of operation and maintenance is of equal effectiveness with this car's performance and its amazingly low price, in establishing the rapidly growing preference for this new kind of eight-cylinder car.

In the fine-car field, the trend is undoubtedly toward Eights.

Drive any Hupmobile Eight in city traffic and on the highway. You will then agree—with enthusiasm—that no American car equals this Hupmobile performance.

You, yourself, might consider other cars for comparison with the Hupmobile Eight. We strongly advise this:

By all means investigate them thoroughly and know to a certainty just what you are giving up if you purchase one of such cars in place of the Hupmobile Eight.

A comparison of performance—of upkeep cost—of driving facility—will make these other types which cling to the engineering of a passing day seem as out of date as mid-Victorian architecture.

Held Up for $25 in Forest Park.
Frank Guris and his wife, of 608 North Vandeventer avenue, were on Pavilion Hill in Forest Park late last night when two men drove near their machine and with revolvers ordered Guris and his wife from their car. Guris started his machine and fled. A short time before Raymond Allen of 4254 Pine street, walking near the Municipal Opera, was held up by two men with revolvers and robbed of $25 and his watch.

DENIES RECEIVERSHIP WAS BROUGHT TO WRECK CONCERN

L. G. Sherman Replies to Charges in Answer of the Carroll Furniture Co.
Denial that he or his two attorneys or anyone else associated with him filed a receivership suit against the Carroll Furniture Co., 1116 Olive street, to wreck the business was made yesterday by L. G. Sherman, a stockholder, at the trial of his suit for a receiver in Circuit Judge Ittner's court. Sherman was examined on the subject by one of his attorneys in view of an allegation contained in the answer of the company.

The allegation recites that the plaintiff, "directed and abetted by his attorneys, conceived and started upon a course of action calculated to force the defendant company to buy plaintiff's stock at his price or failing that to wreck the company."

RUM SHIP BECALMED NEAR CAPE COD SEIZED BY CUTTER

Schooner Sumner Carried 2500 Cases of Alcohol and Wines When Taken.

BOSTON, July 8.—The Canadian schooner Sumner, was seized and brought into port today. The Sumner, a three-masted Canadian vessel, was one of the largest of the seven ships off shore. Coast Guard headquarters said that proceedings would be made a test case.

The Sumner was brought into the harbor in tow of the cutter Morrell and guarded by a patrol boat. The Sumner, which has been on run for before under the name "Gover the Top," appeared with five other schooners and a steamer within the last few days, just after the Coast Guard launched its new campaign against smuggling.

The Sumner carried 2000 cases of alcohol and 500 cases of assorted liquors. Her manifest showed that she had had an additional 500 cases of liquor when she sailed from Halifax, N. S., for Cuba seven weeks ago.

The Sumner was found becalmed at midnight nine miles off Cape Cod by a patrol boat.

GOULD ESTATE FEES $100,000

TOMS RIVER, N. J., July 8.—Fees and expenses totaling more than $100,000 were awarded yesterday by Judge John P. Kirkpatrick at the third accounting of the shrunken estate of the late George J. Gould.

The accounting, submitted as of last February, showed a total of $12,541,310, against the 1925 figure of $14,202,696.76, a shortage of $1,662,385.66. The will was filed last February by the executors, Kingdon Gould and Schuyler Nelson Rice of New Brunswick.

Annual Report of Librarian
Bostwick Shows Mah

From Popularity.

"BEAU GESTE" LED AMONG NOVELS

Florida Real Estate Also a Common Subject of In-

Bureau's Work.

Books on bridge have been more popular than ever before, it is declared in the report of the Public Library for the last fiscal year, delivered to Mayor Miller by Librarian Bostwick.

"Books on cross word puzzles," it is added, "have been relegated to the class of tiddly-winks and ping pong. Mah Jongg, erstwhile rival of bridge, stood forgotten on the shelves."

"Beau Geste," by Percival Christopher Wren, an Englishman, was the most sought novel of the year
at the library, while "The Perennial Bachelor," by Anne Parrish, was next. "The Man Nobody Knows," Bruce Barton's humanized account of the life of Christ, was the most popular work of nonfiction, with Ludwig Lewisohn's "Israel" second,
and Carl Sandburg's "Abraham Lincoln," third. Published six years ago, "The Outline of History," by H. G. Wells, is still much called for. Interest also has been revived in Freud's theory of psycho-analysis.

Florida and Other Things.
Florida, its real estate and ways
to motor there, were the subjects of many calls for library aid during the year, while other popular topics were real estate in general,
radio, evolution, the World Court and the relation between science
to be read widely.

The report directs attention to an advisory service for adults maintained by the library, through which members of the staff consult with persons wishing to obtain certain advantages or gain certain knowledge in their reading, but desire direction as to what selections to make.

A greatly varied service was rendered by the applied science department. One man wanted to take up some kind of farming; he asked for books on the raising of chickens, geese, ducks, canaries, dogs and bees. When a national magazine opened a puzzle contest involving identification of the Presidents of the United States it let the library in for a flood of demands for biographies and pictures of the executives.

Changing Puzzle Contests.
The report commented:
"No work was too important for an assistant to be interrupted in order to identify a stray eyebrow or cheekbone to a doubting contestant, or to prove that Grant could not have been a strippling of 20 summers when he commanded the Union armies, or that Daniel Webster had not been a President at all. The next contest is to be geographical—an appalling thought when one considers potentialities
and size of the universe."

There are 691,055 volumes in the library now, a gain of 24,534 in the year, while 50 years ago there were only 40,946 volumes. Last year the number of borrowings was 2-748,914, an increase over the previous year of 331,401, a record gain. Fifty years ago there were 79,498 borrowings. The library also has 322,985 pamphlets now.
Maintenance cost of the institution
last year was $474,323, compared with $14,261 in 1875-76.

MOVIES BREED IGNORANCE.
G. K. CHESTERTON DECLARES

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, July 8.—G. K. Chesterton thinks it is a great pity that the motion picture, the radio, and other modern inventions have lessened the opportunity of the public to meet politicians face to face and tear them to pieces.

He and Miss Betty Balfour, the film star, are debating "Should the Cinema Be Tolerated?"
Miss Balfour declares it is impossible for the public not to tolerate the motion picture, as it has come to stay and will become more and more popular both as an educational and as an amusement factor.

"What would the magistrates do if they didn't have the film to blame for all the wrongdoings of bad boys?" she demands.
"G. K." declares the motion picture and the modern newspaper create an illusion of unreality and make a lot of persons believe they know something when they are really grossly ignorant. Many persons who are lazy, or too ignorant,
to read a book believe they know
all about it because they have seen a screen version of the story.

AMERICAN LIQUOR SHIPS LOSE 12-MILE PROTECTION
U. S. Allegiance Makes Them Open to Seizure Within Reach, Court Holds.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—There is no "12-mile limit" preventing seizure beyond that point for American ships, according to a decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, made public today. The decision reversed a finding in the United States District Court of the District of Connecticut, which had sustained exceptions to a Government label filed against the American liquor runner Underwriter.

The Underwriter was seized beyond the 12-mile limit, a fact upon which one of the exceptions was based.
"An American ship on the high seas retains her allegiance to the United States," the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals recorded. "It is quite well recognized that every nation has the right to bind its own subjects to its own laws in every place."

PAIN FOREVER

No Need to Suffer Another Day
Those Agonizing Torturing Pains.

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to reduce inflamed, swollen toe joints and get them down to normal and that is to apply Moore's Emerald Oil night and morning, and people who suffer from such enlargements would be wise to reduce them before they reach a more or less chronic stage.
Ask Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., 7th
and Washington av. and Grand and Olive sts., Keiffer Drug Co., Johnson Bros. Drug Co., or any first-class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept any thing in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time, and furthermore,
if this wonderful discovery does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.
Special Note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bursae
are reduced to normal.

Kansas Bankers Held for Robbery.
By the Associated Press.
COFFEYVILLE, Kan., July 8.—C. C. Robertson and Clarence Howland were bound over for trial in district court in connection with the alleged "framed" robbery of the Montgomery County National Bank at Cherryvale on May 27, last, and H. P. Zittle of Springfield, Mo., was released. The bond of Robertson was fixed at $7500 and that of Howard at $5000.

Get to the Blood To Banish Eczema

Obstinate Skin Affections Go Speedily When You Revitalize Your Blood With Ocean-O Concentrated Deep Sea Water.

Skin eruptions and blemishes except those of a contagious nature are all caused by bad blood or at least by blood that is not balanced minerally.

You can supply your blood with just the alkaline minerals that it lacks by taking a teaspoonful of Ocean-O concentrated deep sea water in a glass of cold water morning and night as directed.

This is because deep sea water contains just the same natural revitalizing minerals as pure healthy blood.

Ocean-O comes from far out at sea and in the big laboratory at Newark it is filtered, distilled and concentrated and the excess of common salt removed.

It is surely adding thousands of sufferers from stubborn skin disease and thousands of bottles are sold daily.

If you have any skin eruptions, no matter how long standing, get a bottle of Ocean-O today from Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., Walgreen Drug Co., or any live drug store, with the distinct understanding that if the bottle does not help you your money will be returned.

NO FUNDS FOR ALIEN PROPERTY INQUIRY

Senate Committee Preparing to Put Experts at Work When Lack Is Discovered.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—A hitch in the special Senate committee's investigation of the alien property custodian's office developed when it was discovered the committee was without authority to spend a cent.

While they were preparing to put a staff of expert investigators into the field to pry into the administration of the office it dawned on the committee members yesterday that their resolution and which they were operating did not permit them to spend money.

In drafting the resolution Senator King (Dem.) of Utah failed to observe the provisions of a new law which requires investigating committees to fix an estimate of the cost of inquiries authorized by the Senate.

If a way cannot be found to get around the requirement, the inquiry will go over until December, when Congress convenes.

An effort will be made to get the committee to authorize the minimum amount which Chairman Borah considers necessary for preliminary work. He regards this, however, as a remote possibility because, he said, the law is specific.

Senator King said that inability of the committee to expend funds would "only delay matters a few months." Preliminary work can be done during the summer, he added, and the necessary authority given as soon as Congress meets.

Francis Garvan, former Alien Property Custodian, wrote Chairman Borah that he was ready to appear before the committee if he were permitted to examine his accusers. The chairman replied that the investigation would not be a case of "accuser and accused" but would be a thorough, nonpartisan investigation into the affairs of the Alien Property Custodian's office.

UNUSUAL SETTING AT MEETING HELD HERE FOR PROCTOR

Function Arranged Originally for Women to Help Dry Candidate for U. S. Senate Broadened.

MANY EMPLOYEES OF CITY IN ATTENDANCE

Ministers at Speakers' Table, Luncheon of Chicken Salad, Ice Cream and Iced Tea Served.

By CURTIS A. BETTS.

A luncheon of chicken salad, cream and iced tea, with group of ministers at the speaker's table and with small table filling nearly all the space of the dining rooms at Hotel Statler which women deeply occupied with church work sat side by side with City Hall employees, interested in their jobs than in a great moral fight, formed an unusual setting yesterday for a primary political meeting.

It was a luncheon arranged by Mrs. L. J. Brooks, manager of the campaign of former State Senator Proctor for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. Mrs. Brooks, member of the board of religious organizations, brought out active church workers to help the promotion of the campaign candidate running as a "dry." The City Hall job holders, including ward politicians and stenographers and clerks, were there, many of them under a political expediency Mayor Miller's advocacy of Proctor for Senator.

Originally planned as purely women's meeting and the meeting arranged accordingly, there was considerable debate when the door broadened into a general meeting as to whether chicken salad would be a proper service for men. But the final decision was that the men might as well eat the inevitable in politics, as the chicken salad was brought in, lettuce leaf and all.

It was not unusual that the luncheon opened with a grace saying the Rev. S. E. Ewing, secretary of the St. Louis Baptist Mission organization. That has been a custom for a good many years. But it was rather unusual that at the head table with Senator Proctor and Mayor Miller, who introduced them, were a group of ministers, including James Hardin Smith, U. S. Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Richard Kelly, Lafayette Park Baptist Church; the Rev. D. W. W. Water Tower Baptist Church; the Rev. J. L. Watson, Grace Avenue Baptist Church; the Rev. A. A. Lowry, Tower Grove Baptist Church, and several others. When at the Rev. Parker Shiel, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and Miss Fannie D. Robinson, secretary of the W. C. T. U. of St. Louis district.

Mrs. Brooks, in presenting Mayor Miller, who introduced Senator Proctor, spoke of his church connections, criticized Senator Williams, his opponent, as a "straw man" because of his evasive position on prohibition, and talked the beautiful home life of Proctor. Mayor Miller elaborated on the extrajudicial of Senator Williams and gave Proctor a glowing endorsement.

Candidate Catches the Spirit. Proctor, who had intended to devote the greater part of his address to "business conditions and business problems, caught the spirit of the occasion and speech was switched to that of a evangelist he has been in the "dry" communities. He pleaded for support of the Eighteenth Amendment and promised that he would oppose efforts to weaken and act.

He discussed briefly inland highways, improved highways, and the World Court and other topics, opposing heart and supporting Federal road funds to improve waterways and roads.

MANY EMPLOYES OF
CITY IN ATTENDANCE

Ministers at Speakers' Table, Luncheon of Chicken Salad, Ice Cream and iced Tea Served.

By CURTIS A. BETTS.

A luncheon of chicken salad,
ice cream and iced tea, with a group of ministers at the speakers' table and with small tables filling nearly all the space of three rooms at Hotel Statler at night women deeply occupied with church work sat side by side with City Hall employees, more interested in their jobs than in any social moral fight, formed an unusual setting yesterday for a primary political meeting.

It was a luncheon arranged by Mrs. J. J. Brooks, manager for women of the campaign of former Senator Proctor for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. Mrs. Brooks, a member of the Board of Religious organizations, brought out the church workers to help in the promotion of the campaign of candidate running as a "dry."
The City Hall job holders, including many politicians and women stenographers and clerks, were there, many of them under orders to support as a matter of political expediency Mayor Miller's advocacy of Proctor for Senator.

Original Plan Broadened.
Originally planned as purely a women's meeting and the men were excluded accordingly, there was wonderable debate when the affair broadened into a general meeting, as to whether chicken salad would be a proper service for men. But the final decision was that the men might as well be inevitable in politics, and the chicken salad was brought to the table.

It was not unusual that the meeting opened with a grace said
the Rev. S. E. Ewing, secretary of the St. Louis Baptist Mission organization. That has been a custom for a good many years. But it is rather unusual that at the table with Senator Proctor and Mayor Miller, who introduced him, were a group of ministers, the Rev. James Hardin Smith, University Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Richard Kelly, Lafayette Park
Church; the Rev. D. F. F.
Water Tower Baptist Church;
the Rev. J. L. Watson, Grand avenue Baptist Church; the Rev.
A. Lowry, Tower Grove Baptist Church, and several others. With them sat the Rev. Parker Shields, president of the Anti-Saloon League, and Miss Fannie D. Robb, secretary of the W. C. T. U. of St. Louis district.

Mrs. Brooks, in presenting Mayor
Miller, who introduced Senator
Proctor, spoke of his church connection, criticized Senator Wilson because of his evasive position on prohibition, and talked of the beautiful home life of Proctor,
the Mayor elaborated on the "moralizing" of Senator Williams and gave Proctor a glowing interview.

Proctor Catches the Spirit.
Proctor, who had intended to make the greater part of his address to business conditions and business problems, caught the spirit of the occasion and his speech was switched to that of the moralist he has been in the "dry"
and communities. He pledged his support of the Eighteenth amendment and promised that he would oppose efforts to weaken the amendment.

He discussed briefly inland waterways, improved highways, agriculture, the World Court and a number of other topics, opposing the amendment and supporting Federal expenditure to improve waterways and roads.

At all appearances it was an enthusiastic "dry" audience, though many of the city hall employees would come under the "dry" classification. The word had gone out from heads of departments,
namely to women employees,
that they would be expected to attend the luncheon, and there was a general obedience. Women attending politics rapidly and, although it was the first time that chicken salad had been at the Statler, they marched right up and paid
their dollar each.

Disturbing to Old-Timers.
From the standpoint of political realities, the luncheon has interested old-time politicians, and has aroused them. It used to be that the morning of candidates in the days: "I'd rather have the bar-

The Political Undertow Gen. Andrews Sails Out Of a Political Mess

Instead of Resigning, Dry Chief Goes to Europe and Problem of Choosing His Successor Is Staved Off Until After the Congressional Elections in November.

BY CHARLES MICHELSON,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

WASHINGTON, July 8.
Consider the sad case of Lincoln C. Andrews, chief of prohibition service, who had his resignation in and an excuse for quitting for which he had waited for months, and suddenly found himself tripped by politics so he has to stay in the job, though not in it until after election.

The Anti-Saloon League was quite willing to lose him because of his profanation of the first tenet of the dry creed, when he testified that under certain conditions the sale of beer might be better than what we have now. The wets are indifferent, for according to their hypothesis the difference in the failure to enforce prohibition under one man or another is only a question of degree.

What does matter, and the reason for his resignation failing to take,
is that President Coolidge and the high command of the G. O. P. generally do not dare risk the perils involved in choosing his successor
with a campaign imminent.

Anti-Saloon League
Would Name Successor.

The Anti-Saloon League would insist on naming his successor. If its demand were granted there would be no hope of a Republican Senator from wet Illinois, and even Wadsworth of New York might go by the board. If they turned down the arid priesthood, the dry might be already shaky because of re-signment over the scant consideration the farm bill got at the hands of a Republican administration, would be gone beyond hope.
Hence the White House spokesman announced just before leaving for his Adirondack vacation that Gen.
Andrews was not relinquishing his post. The story around "Washington" is that this was the first notice Andrews had of the change in his destiny.

However, as soon as he heard he was not resigning, he confirmed the White House statement. Then he, too, started away from here, to the chancelleries of Europe to discuss closer co-operation on the anti-smuggling treaty, which is about as misty an excuse for a junket abroad
as could be imagined. We have a perfectly equipped Ambassador whose job it is to attend to such matters. But it will keep the chief of the prohibition outfit out of the way for two or three months and save the embarrassment of having to select another one, and the adventures of the prohibition issue in the election may make it easier for the President to decide which horn
of the dilemma is least sharp.

Andrews Experiment
Definitely Over.

It really makes no difference; to all intents and purposes the Andrews experiment is over. In his own good time Andrews will go the way of his variegated line of predecessors—honest men and knaves, fanatics and political deuces—and the problem will be just where it was when he came in with a blare of trumpets and an earnest purpose of creating an enforcement machine that should be respectable and respected.

Naturally he has been unhappy.
The promise of a free hand was shattered when he was told he would have to consult the Senators and Representatives about his appointments, and his own good sense taught him early that he could not ignore the Anti-Saloon League without bringing the temple down about his ears.

Nobody but a fanatic or a grafter
could be contented in Andrews' position or be patient with its impossibilities, and he does not fit either specification. It may be added that a soldier is least likely to approach success in the place, for until it is possible to regiment the population of the United States, and police them with a proverbial guard that knows no law beyond the orders of the chief, and to subject that guard

tenders than the preachers. The preachers don't vote." But there have been several recent elections
which have shaken that belief.

The luncheon disclosed that the manner of campaign conducted by Mayor Miller is being repeated by him for Senator Proctor. The women and so-called church vote
is being organized under the leadership of Mrs. Brooks. Those that are interested in the movement, and he succeeded in interesting a lot of them in the Mayor's campaign,
will be expected to personally solicited their friends. They will be expected to write letters for Proctor to every relative and friend they have in the State.

It generally has been believed that St. Louis was so overwhelmingly "wet" that a "dry" candidate could expect to make little progress here, but statistics of the past six years have raised a question about that.

Vote for Hyde in 1920 Cited.
In 1920 former Gov. Hyde polled
a vote of nearly 27,000 in St. Louis.
Hyde was very "dry." However,
there was some last-minute double-crossing by "wet" politicians to get on the band wagon when

UNION ELECTRIC EARNS 6.72 PCT. ON $54,000,000

Annual Report Shows Return for 1925 on Valuation Fixed by Service Board.

A showing that in 1925 it earned 6.72 per cent upon its authorized rate base of approximately $54,- 000,000 is made by Union Electric Light & Power Co. in its annual report filed with the Missouri Public Service Commission today.

The rate base was established by the commission in an inventory valuation based upon actual investment made as of 1915. To this has been added the company's actual expenditures for additions to property.

The sum available for common stock dividends at the end of the year was $2,468,452, which is approximately 19 per cent on its outstanding $13,000,000 held in entirety by the North American Co. of New York.

Union Electric paid $1,560,000 in dividends during the year. The remainder, $908,452, was added to surplus, which now is $6,985,000.

The company's gross receipts were $15,915,022, of which $11,- 904,362 was paid by St. Louis consumers. The company showed an expenditure in excess of $4,000,000
for additions to its plant during the year.

Early this year the company
purchased control of the Keokuk dam of the Mississippi River Power Co., paying about $13,000,000, partly in securities of its parent company.

GERMAN POTASH SYNDICATE
DENIES MONOPOLISTIC AIMS

Issues Formal Statement in Reply to Charges Made by Secretary Hoover.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Assurance that the German potash deposits will not be manipulated to the detriment of the agricultural interests of the United States, or any other nation, is given by the German potash syndicate in a statement of its policy. Denial that these deposits constitute a world monopoly also was made.

It was the syndicate's first statement, issued as a message to American farmers and financiers, since Secretary of Commerce Hoover and other Government officials made it known that they considered the syndicate's control of the German potash deposits an "objectionable foreign monopoly," similar to the alleged monopolies of rubber, coffee and other commodities.

The statement was made public in this country by H. A. Forbes, vice president of the Potash Importing corporation of America,
described as an organization
financed and operated by Americans, and which controls the importation and distribution of all German potash used in the United States.

"The very size and quality of the German potash deposits and of the technical equipment of the German potash mines," said the statement, "would make it impossible for the French and 40 per cent of the Germans do so, but English
even of the highest station seldom
ask for a room with bath. They make use of the general bathroom
for shaving."

SAYS OPPOSITION TO AUSTRIA
JOINING GERMANY IS WASTING

President of German Reichstag Declares Sentiment in U. S.
Toward Union Is Changing.

Copyright, 1926, by the Press and Publications Co., New York World
and Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, July 8.—The Westminster Gazette prints the following from its Vienna correspondent:
"Paul Loeb, President of the German Reichstag, declared in an address to an audience including members of the Government and of the diplomatic corps and leaders of finance, business and science,
that opposition to Austria's union
to Germany is waning in England and America."

"Herr Loeb said public opinion
in both countries was gradually veering around to recognition of the necessity of including in a great German commonwealth Austria, which never can be self contained and whose population desires such a union. As soon as Germany has joined the League of Nations the question must be brought up, as a decision could not be postponed any longer, he said. Europe, he added, was economically helpless against the United States at present and the fusion would furnish an object lesson."

Family Killed in Chilean Landslide.
By the Associated Press.

SANTIAGO, Chile, July 8.—An entire family is dead in Valparaiso
as a result of a landslide from the mountain Arrayan, which crushed their house. A mass of earth and stone smashed the dwelling of Pedro Alvarez and killed him, his wife, mother-in-law and five children.

Map of Projected Boulevard in Southwest St. Louis

THE heavy black lines in this map, in a circuit bounded by Kingshighway, Forest Park and the city limits, represent the projected 13-mile drive, to be created by the River des Peres Park. The solid line, for four miles between Christy Park and the "corner" of the city at the top of the map, represents the section for which land is to be condemned under a recent ordinance. This part of the drive will be bordered by parked strips, similar to those in Christy Park, on Kingshighway Southwest, one of the links in the projected drive. The dotted lines represent existing thoroughfares to be incorporated in the drive, and the section of X-line, through the Lindenwood district, is a part remaining to be decided on. The meandering course of the River des Peres, which is to be straightened to parallel the drive, is shown.

WRITERS DEBATING GENESIS OF BATH HABIT IN ENGLAND

Novelist Jerome Started It by Saying London Had No
Bathrooms Before 1886.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 8.—A newspaper controversy has arisen here on the subject of when the people of England first got the habit of taking a morning bath.

Jerome K. Jerome, the novelist, started the controversy by stating
in an article that there were no
bathrooms in London homes before 1886. Elderly folk indignantly deny this and give dates to prove that when they were young, English people took baths occasionally at least.

One writer declares that in 1872,
his family owned a tub that had a lid and a strap on it and was used as a trunk when the family traveled. Another writes—apparently from first-hand knowledge—that there were no bathrooms in Windsor "Castle in the time of Queen Victoria and that King Edward had several installed upon his accession in 1901.

It is also recalled that when the late Earl of Dunraven returned from America in 1886, he brought with him an American tub and Punch published a cartoon on Lord Dunraven's statement that "in American houses, an entire room is given over to the bath."

One writer claims that Englishmen make a good deal of noise about their morning "tub" but that American and Continental hotel men say it is little more than noise.
He quotes the Hotel Record of Zurich, Switzerland, to the effect that "almost every American asks for a room with a bath; 75 per cent of the French and 40 per cent of
the Germans do so, but English
even of the highest station seldom
ask for a room with bath. They
make use of the general bathroom
for shaving."

FRENCH TROOPS IN SYRIA
PREFER BEER FROM GERMANY

Soldiers' Taste at 100 in the Shade
Astounds Touring Ameri-

By the Associated Press.

DJEZZIN, Greater Lebanon, July 8.—The French soldiers in this territory under French mandate prefer German beer to French.

An American party arrived here by automobile when the thermometer was near 100 and sought refreshments in the town's one cafe.
The Americans called for beer and were surprised to be given bottles with Munich labels.

"Don't you have any French
beer?" the cafekeeper was asked.
"No," he replied, "this beer is transported here on mule-back from the agency at Beirut of a German brewer. The French officers here, our best customers,
prefer the German brew."

CONFERENCE ON RUM RUNNING
British and Andrews to Discuss Strengthening of Rules.

Copyright, 1926, by the Press and Publications Co., New York World
and Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, July 8.—Only strict enforcement of existing regulations to stop rum running is expected to be discussed by British officials and Lincoln C. Andrews when the chief of the American prohibition unit arrives here next week. No new anti-bootlegging agreements between Great Britain and the United States are contemplated. It was said here today,
the British hold that further restrictions would be likely to prove a hardship to legitimate trade.

River Des Peres Park Plan Will Provide 13-Mile Drive

Actual Construction Several Years Away, but Preliminaries Are Sketched and Condemnation Suit Will Begin in October.

A start has been made on an ambitious plan to provide St. Louis with a park drive, connecting with existing thoroughfares, to make a 13-mile circuit around the large area south of Forest Park and west of Kingshighway.

The project is to furnish St.
Louis with an attraction similar to the Lake Shore Drive of Chicago and the Paseo of Kansas City.

Upon approval of the condemnation ordinance the City Law Department ordered a certificate of title to cover all the property in the four-mile section. Using this,
a condemnation suit must be prepared and filed by Oct. 20. Then the usual slow course of condemnation proceedings will have to be followed.

Meantime, the work of converting the River des Peres in this district from a meandering open sewer
to a controlled drainage stream,
now under way, must be completed at least to a point that will permit building the parkway, which will take in the land between the stream and the city limits, a strip varying from 120 to 600 feet in width. It is expected to be several years before work can be undertaken on the parkway.

Christy Park Typical.

Christy Park, which borders Kingshighway Southwest on both sides of Gravois avenue and as far as the junction with Kingshighway proper, will continue the project.
Its appearance now is typical of what the parkway will be. It is a parkway, through the planting of trees and shrubbery, use of lakes
and provision for recreational spots.

Kingshighway, Oakland avenue
(the southern boundary of Forest Park), and McCausland avenue are to be utilized also. The western half of Oakland avenue remains to be paved. Between the southern end of McCausland avenue, at Manchester avenue, and the northern end of the parkway now under ordinance (through the Benton, Gratiot and Lindenwood districts) details of the circuit boulevard project have not been drawn. It is thought that this section may be prepared for commercial as well as pleasure vehicles. The Arsenal street viaduct, which is to be built soon, will connect with this part of the boulevard; the Eyer avenue
viaduct will be changed to connect with it and Southwest avenue, when improved, will be another link.

BRITISH AND IRISH MOVIE MEN
BEGIN FIGHT ON U. S. MONOPOLY

Demand Abolition of "Block Booking." Government Said to Have Promised Assistance.

Copyright, 1926, by the Press and Publications Co., New York World
and Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, July 8.—The first serious revolt against American monopoly in the film industry was begun here when British and Irish exhibitors, by a vote of 1704 to 198, decided to demand abolition of "block booking."

"We are now determined that block booking shall be abolished
absolutely and there shall be no loop holes," said W. N. Blake, president of the association, last night.
"Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, president of the Board of Trade, has promised us that, if the various interests cannot be safeguarded by agreement, the Government will introduce legislation immediately."

The Westminster Gazette praises
this decision as meaning "a stop to the flood of rubbish which American film producing firms are at present able to dispose of in this country."

40 KILLED IN MOROCCAN RAID

Spanish Soldiers and Prisoners Fall
in Attack on Market Place.

killed, mainly Spanish soldiers and
recently surrendered tribesmen,
when dissident tribesmen attacked
the market place at Beni Guel, in the Targuist region.

STRIKERS CONVICTED IN ITALY

By the Associated Press.

ALESSANDRIA, Italy, July 8.—
The first convictions under the new syndicalist law forbidding strikes was handed down by the labor court here today. Seven laborers, employed in a furniture factory at Corrosio, were found guilty of having, on June 30, organized a strike of 800 laborers to obtain better working conditions.

Five were sentenced to ten months imprisonment each and the others, who are minors, to eight months. Under the syndicalist law, however, the penalties will not be applied, provided the men maintain good behavior.

GOVERNMENT FACES
ADDED DIFFICULTIES

Ratification of Debt Settlement Is Attacked in Chamber of Deputies by Franklin-Bouillon.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, July 8.—After a slight recovery from Tuesday's slump,
the French franc sagged heavily today to a new low record of 39.01 to the dollar on news that the Bank of France statement would show an increase in circulation of nearly a billion francs.

In addition to news of the increase in circulation, pessimism
was increased by financial crises
by the attack on the Government yesterday in the Chamber of Deputies.
Criticism of Finance Minister Caillaux's plans for stabilization of the French exchange and for ratification of the debt accords was resulting in the feeling that serious difficulties are now ahead of the Government.

M. Franklin-Bouillon, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Chamber, yesterday attacked ratification of the American debt settlement, a basic element of the Caillaux plan as "sabotage of French interests." M. Blum, the Socialist leader, declared that "it conceals the germ of inflation."

Gilbert May Intervene.

Finance Minister Caillaux today
told the Chamber that the Brand Ministry does not seek extra constitutional power in dealing with the present financial crisis. The Government, he declared, is merely seeking authority to carry out the working plan.

The Finance Minister's declaration was made in response to a statement of Blum, that the Ministry was seeking power outside of the Constitution. M. Blum's re-<

Three Reasons Why This Mother Has a MOTION PICTURE CAMERA

THIS proud mother intends to keep with her always in living, moving pictures the memory of her children just as they are today. In years to come these pictures will be priceless treasures to Mother and Dad.

Make Your Own Movies

Living picture-memories; movies of memorable events and scenes, records of your vacations, travels and sports are now made as easily and almost as economically as snapshots. The resulting pictures are of the same quality as those seen in the better theaters. A projector that a child can operate shows the brilliantly illuminated movies on a screen erected in your home. Exposed films developed and returned to you free.

$25.00 Up

We carry in stock the Pathex and Cine-Kodak as well as the famous Bell and Howell films—offering a price range from $25 up for reliable motion picture cameras. A free demonstration—without any obligation on your part—will be given on any of this equipment.

FRESNO, Cal., July 8.—Planning a $1,000,000 endowment fund for Chandler College, Havana, Cuba, as a memorial to his son, the Rev. W. G. Fletcher, pastor of the White Temple Methodist Church, South, has deposited the sum of $1000 with the board of education of his church. The money with accruing interest, is to be held by the board for 100 years when, the Rev. Fletcher estimates, it will amount to $1,024,000. It will then go toward the support of the college he helped to found.

KIPLING TALKS ON FICTION AND AUTHORS

About Dozen Writers in 2500
Years Have Achieved Lasting Fame, He Says.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, July 8.—The Royal Society's gold medal for literature was presented at the society's centenary banquet to Rudyard Kipling.

The famous English author made his first public appearance since his recent illness, and took a little fling at the critics. "Fiction," he said last night in his address, "began when some man invented a story about another man; it developed when another man told tales about a woman. This strenuous epoch began the first school of destructive criticism as well as the first critic, who spent his short but vivid life in trying to explain that a man need not be a hen to judge the merits of an omelette. He died, but the question he raised is still at issue."

Kipling, who received the medal from the hands of the Earl of Balfour, expressed appreciation at the honor, saying: "The fiction that I am worthy of that honor be upon your heads!" Speaking of the search by authors in all ages for material and methods of expression which would truly express life, Kipling called attention to the few who had really reached the highest pinnacle.

"All men," he said, "are interested in reflections on themselves and their surroundings, whether in the pure heart of a crystal or in a muddy pool, and nearly every writer who supplies a reflection secretly desires a share of immortality for the pains he has been at in holding up the mirror, which also reflects himself."

"He may get his desire. Quite a dozen writers have achieved immortality in the last 2500 years. From the bookmaker's—a real bookmaker's—point of view the odds are not attractive. But fiction is built on fiction. There is where it differs from other art. Most of the arts admit the truth that it is not expedient to tell everyone everything."

"Fiction recognizes no such bars; there is no canon of reserve or pity that need be respected in fiction. Why should there be? The man, after all, is not telling the truth; he is only writing fiction. While he writes it his world will extract from it just so much of truth or pleasure as it requires for the moment."

"In time a little more or less of the residue may be carried forward to the general account. And there perhaps devoted to ends of which the writer never dreamed."

"In every age some men gain temporary favor because they have met the temporary need of their age. Yet, as regards their future, they stand on a perfect equality with their fellow craftsmen. The utmost a writer may hope for is that there may survive of his work a fraction good enough to be drawn upon later to uphold or embellish some ancient truth restated, or some old delight reborn."

AS BILLION MORE PAPER THREATENS

War today have assurance that M. Durand, Minister of the Interior, would withdraw his prohibition against a proposed demonstration Sunday in opposition to ratification of the American debt accord.

The association of American volunteers in the French army has agreed to share in the parade against which Ambassador Herriek had protested as an insult to the United States. The Americans said at a meeting last night that participation was not intended to place them on record either for or against ratification, but merely to relieve the anti-American aspect of the demonstration.

Members of the American Legion, resident in Paris, probably will not be asked to join the parade as they are veterans of the American military forces and might consider participation compromising.

Herriek Still Opposed.
Herriek is perturbed at the decision of the association to take part in the demonstration. Under present plans the American volunteers will be stationed before the Alan Seeger monument in the Place de l'Etat Unis, where they will receive a wreath from the French veterans' association as it marches past.

Ambassador Herriek said today that the posters announcing the parade were a direct slap at the United States and at himself. Consequently, he feels that if Americans take any part in the parade, it will embarrass him officially. He felt that it was unthinkable that the American volunteers would bear a share in the demonstration.

COUNT OF TEN ON JAZZ

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, July 8.—Jazz has been indicted on 10 counts by Dr. Henry Coward, conductor of the Sheffield Musical Union, and one of England's most noted musicians. Coward's reasons for its suppression are that it has:
1. Ungodly, jerky rhythms, blatant muted trumpets, hoisting, out-of-tune saxophones, irritating plang-plongs by banjos, boisterous bangings of kitchen utensils, ceaseless commotion, atavistic tendencies and grotesque howlings.

CHICAGO TAXICAB LINE FAILURE HITS SMALL INVESTORS

School Teachers and Tradesmen May Lose Million in Premier Concern's Bankruptcy.

RECEIVERS TRACE MISSING VEHICLES

Officials Blame Enemies for the Charge That the Ku Klux Klan Backed Company.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—A possible million-dollar loss to stockholders,
for the most part school teachers,
small tradesmen and others of moderate income, was indicated today by investigators in the crash of the Premier Taxi Co.

A creditors' petition, made the basis for a bankruptcy order yesterday, placed the company's liabilities
at $1,500,000 and the assets at $1-000,000, but study of the firm's files led Samuel Howard, receiver, to express the opinion that little more than $500,000 could be salvaged
from the business.

Even the meters of the upward
of 700 cabs listed as chief assets were found to be heavily mortgaged and the receiver said there was no possibility that the company would resume business under his supervision.

While appraisers labored over the accounts, Federal agents today
pressed an investigation to determine if there had been any attempt to conceal assets. They had received a report from Dr. E. J. Sloan, a public health service official, that he saw a caravan of 47 Premier cabs headed across the Indiana-Illinois line near here at dawn Sunday.
Danville (Ill.) residents also reported seeing 28 Premier cars pass through there Monday, supposedly en route to Indiana. Howard said examination of the books gave no indication of such movement of vehicles to Indiana as an item of routine.

One of the incidents of the re-ceivership proceedings was a letter,
purported to be signed by Ku Klux Klan officers, indicating that the organization was backing the company and urging members to buy stock. Chicago officials declared the letter to be a fabrication of commercial enemies. F. I. Barrows, former president of Premier Motors, Inc., of Indianapolis, and one of the organizers of the company, denied that the concern was promoted by the Klan. He said
Chicago capital financed it.

Investigators found that hundreds of small investors were interested in the cab firm. Sale of the company's stock was ordered stopped by the Illinois Securities Commission last April, according to the office of the Secretary of State, because of failure to file a supplementary report.

Peter A. Mortensen, former city school official, who became president of the company late in 1924,
but maintains that his position has been only nominal during the last year, said he believed reorganization would be attempted.

At the request of Howard, Chief of Police Collins ordered police to return all Premier taxicabs found on the streets to the company's garages, where they were taken from the drivers into the hands of Federal custodians.

The company was said to be two weeks in arrears in drivers' pay,
but Howard reported today
that the money due from drivers had been collected. The coup to prevent appropriation by the drivers of the taxicabs to satisfy back salary claims has been nearly 100 per cent successful, he indicated.

ITALY BARS CURRENCY EXPORT

Heavy Fines and Confiscation Provided by Government Decree.

ROME, July 8.—Attempts to export lire will be punished by heavy fines and confiscation of the money involved, under a new government decree.

The decree, further restricting
the movement of Italian currency, permits persons intending to make long trips abroad to carry a maximum of 10,000 lire (about $340).
Proportionately smaller sums are allowed for shorter journeys.

was struck on the head with a pa-

by a man. He ran into O'Fallon Park after striking the child. The girl suffered a scalp wound and was taken home.

LLOYD GEORGE'S PORTRAIT GONE FROM LIBERAL CLUB

Joins Winston Churchill's in Retirement. After Political Squabble.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, July 8.—Portraits of David Lloyd George, who is not popular among the die-hards of the Liberal party, and Winston Churchill, who went over to the Conservatives, have disappeared from the walls of the National Liberal Club in London.

The portraits are said to repose
now in the storage cellar of the club. Only oblong blotches on the walls mark the places where they used to hang.

Only recently Lloyd George successfully defended his position as parliamentary leader of the Liberal party despite the efforts of the Liberal party leader, Lord Oxford and the "Shadow Cabinet" to oust him.

On or Under the Ladder!

Ladders are interesting.

Who hasn't wondered at the old superstition—being unlucky to walk under a ladder?

Foolish? Yes, unless the ladder or something from it is falling.

But there's good psychology behind the superstition.

To go up, one must get out from under, go around to the front and climb.

It's unlucky not to. The ladders of success lead up.

This brings us to Frank, the painter, and the painters' ladders.

Watch him place his extension, moving up and up. Not quite as high as the ladder of the dream, but, oh, boy, it's high to the top!

Then Frank ascends with a confidence which has put many a man on top of the ladder of independence.

The time comes when Frank quits climbing painters' extensions.

Everybody agrees Frank's life has been blameless; that he has been living on the right side of the ladder leading to better things beyond.

Frank's widow has the heritage and the ladders.

They are useless to her except to sell and one day Frank's ladders are listed in the Post-Dispatch Classified columns—and sold.

A younger man profits by the purchase and climbs the ladders to a flourishing business, for the good word of Frank's widow to Frank's friends went with the ladders.

Another Post-Dispatch Want Ad success!

Post-Dispatch want ads are ladders which make it easy for many persons to climb and get larger visions of life.

Post-Dispatch Want Ads need not be ladder ads to be ladders—

And being lucky or unlucky depends upon whether or not you're on the climbing side and using them.

Thousands and thousands use the Post-Dispatch classified columns to help them climb. To be exact, 78,327 classified advertisements appeared in the Post-Dispatch during June. Compared with other St. Louis newspapers, this was 24,294 more than all the others combined!

There's a magical, lucky number well worth remembering—Main 1111—the telephone call to place your want ad in the Post-Dispatch.

And, of course, you read Post-Dispatch Wants.

STATE HAS 600 ROAD CONTRACTS UNDER WAY

Missouri Building Highways Faster Than Any Other in U. S., Says Engineer.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, July 8.—The State Highway Commission now has more than 600 road building contracts under way on State roads in all sections of Missouri, and is building roads faster this year than any other State in the union, Chief Highway Engineer B. H. Piepmeyer stated in an address broadcast last night from the State radio station at the capitol.

The system of 7640 miles now is more than 36 per cent hard surfaced, and by the close of the present construction season approximately 3500 miles of highways will have been completed, Piepmeyer said, representing slightly less than half of the entire system.

The contracts under way include grading preliminary to hard surfacing, concrete paving, gravel surfacing and permanent bridge construction.

Thus far the State has sold $47,500,000 in bonds from the authorized issue of $60,000,000 for road building, and another $7,500,000 in bonds will be sold this year. The last of the bonds will be sold in 1927, and after that year the State will build roads on a pay-as-you-go basis, from proceeds of the State automobile license fees and gasoline tax.

Income from the gasoline tax and automobile registration fees now, is approximately $13,000,000 a year and it is estimated the revenue will reach $15,000,000 a year by 1927. This money goes into the road fund and is available for road construction and maintenance, after deduction of the annual requirements for interest and retirement of outstanding road bonds.

Piepmeyer stated the commission had put approximately $100,000,000 in road work under contract up to the present time. This covers the period since active construction of the State system was started in 1921, and includes money from Federal aid and all other sources.

He pointed out that the State highway system was being financed, aside from Federal aid received, from revenue derived from automobile owners and that not a cent of direct property tax had been levied for building the State roads.

I. C. C. SUSPENDS NEW RAIL SCHEDULE ON EXPORT GRAIN

Missouri Pacific Order Set Aside Until Nov. 5 for an Investigation.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Pending an investigation, the Interstate Commerce Commission today suspended until Nov. 5 new schedules of the Missouri Pacific which would restrict the terminal rules governing the rates on export grain from points in Colorado, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma to Galveston, Houston and Texas City.

Operation of the tariff would result in increases in amounts equal to the switching charges necessary to effect shipside delivery. As an illustration the rate on bulk wheat from Kansas City to Galveston, now 30 1/2 cents for 100 pounds, would be 30 1/2 cents plus $4.05 a car for switching charges when moved via the Galveston Wharf Co., and 30 1/2 cents plus $3.15 a car when moved by way of the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio Railway.

BANKER ARRESTED IN FLORIDA

Robert Cowan of Fulton (Mo.) Taken.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH. KANSAS CITY, July 8.—Robert Cowan, former teller of the First National Bank at Fulton, indicted at the April term of United States district court at Jefferson City on a charge of abstracting $12,500 of the bank's funds, has been arrested in Florida on a Federal warrant sent there on the Missouri indictment. According to Roscoe C. Patterson, United States district attorney, Cowan went to Florida last fall after acquittal in a State court at Fulton on embezzlement charges. Patterson is prepared to try Cowan at the October term at Jefferson City.

Child, Shot by Father, Dies. DANVILLE, Ill., July 8.—Raymond Gerdes, 8 years old, of Piper City, is dead from the effects of a bullet wound inflicted by his father during a Fourth of July celebration. The father was firing in the air and in lowering his pistol one shot struck the son.

Two Die of Heat in Illinois. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 8.—Overcome by the heat while engaged in switching operations at Chatham, George Seyburt, Wabash freight conductor, died in the caboose of his train Tuesday night.

By the Associated Press. GALESBURG, Ill., July 8.—Heat prostration is believed to have been responsible for the death Tuesday of Frank A. Johnson, 57 years old, a machinist. He was overcome while at work.

Girl, 21, Is City Clerk. By the Associated Press. FREEPORT, Ill., July 8.—A good-looking, bobbed-haired, 21-year-old girl presided in the office of City Clerk here today. She was Miss Irma Datt, former chief deputy, who was appointed to serve out the remainder of the term of Clarence W. Schmick, who resigned last week.

MRS. McPHERSON TESTIFIES BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

California Evangelist Asked to Tell in Detail How She Was Kidnaped.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, July 8.—Almee Semple McPherson had her first opportunity today to tell her abduction story to the county grand jury. Meanwhile, the Federal grand jury is considering the result of three weeks' investigation by Government officials.

The grand jurors indicated in public statements that they would ask the religious leader to recount in detail how she was kidnaped at Ocean Park, May 18, by two men and a woman, how she finally escaped from her captors and staggered across desert wastes into the Mexican border town of Agua Prieta, across the line from Douglas, Ariz. Mrs. McPherson went before the jury shortly after 10 a. m.

Her testimony is expected to occupy almost the entire day, but in the event she concludes before the jury recesses, her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy is listed as the next witness.

Investigators continue to center their attention upon the stories of David Bloom and S. S. Franco that H. D. Hallenbeck, former building superintendent at the Angelus Temple Bible School and confidante of Mrs. McPherson and her mother, had bought a hat at Bloom's store in Tucson between June 15 and 20. Because of his position of trust in the affairs of Angelus Temple, Hallenbeck also is being sought as a grand jury witness. At his ranch 39 miles northeast of Yuma, he said last night that he had not been in Tucson for eight years.

PATROLMAN FOR 18 YEARS RESIGNS AFTER REPRIMAND

Fred Grund, 45, Off Duty, Had Unbuttoned His Coat With Temperature at 98 Degrees.

Reprimanded by his Captain for leaving his coat unbuttoned the afternoon of July 2, when the thermometer stood at 98 degrees, Patrolman Fred Grund, 45 years old, of 3732 Connecticut street, attached to 11, Souldard Street Station, resigned, and today Inspector Walton recommended that the Police Board accept his resignation.

Capt. Kirk, who commands the Souldard district, saw Patrolman Grund on the street near the station at 2:55 p. m. with his coat unbuttoned, in violation of a Police Board ruling. He asked the patrolman why he had violated the regulation and Grund replied: "I just got off a street car and it is hot. Besides, I'm not to report for duty until 3 p. m." The Captain told him to go to the station and make out a report as to his reasons for leaving his coat unbuttoned.

Grund walked into the station, wrote his resignation and surrendered his police property. He had been 18 years on the force and had a good record.

RAISED STOCK CERTIFICATES PURCHASED BY BANKS

Arrest of Bond Salesman Starts Investigation of Scheme to Alter Well Known Shares.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—The arrest of a man attempting to sell an altered certificate to a suburban bank started an investigation here of recent sales to banks throughout the United States of altered specimens of well known shares.

Certificates of the American Can Co., Baldwin Locomotive, Fisk Rubber and Marland Oil, "raised" from one share to as high as 40 or 50, are reported to have been altered. Banks, recognizing the certificates as familiar issues, bought them, according to information from a representative of the Bankers Trust Co. of New York.

A. C. Tisdale, bond salesman, was arrested and information from him led to the arrest of Dr. G. E. Fosberg from whom Tisdale said he obtained the stock. They were released after the physician convinced detectives that he originally obtained the raised certificates from J. B. Lawrence. Lawrence was sought today.

REMUS TO FACE DEPORTATION CHARGE, U. S. OFFICER SAYS

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., July 8.—Declaring that his investigation has revealed that George Remus, who served a term in Federal prison here after conviction in connection with an alleged Cincinnati liquor ring, is not an American citizen, C. A. Coykendall, immigration officer of the Atlanta district, announced last night that he would seek Remus' deportation.

Remus is now serving a one-year sentence at Miami County jail, Troy, O., for operation of a nuisance in Ohio. Coykendall said a warrant for the arrest of Remus on the charge that he is an undesirable alien will be issued here in a few days.

He declared Government investigators had found no record of the naturalization of Remus' father, Frank Remus German. Remus, it was said, claims his father was naturalized and that he was a minor at that time.

Fidel La Barba Defeats Rivers And Keeps Title Flyweight Champion Discards Defensive Tactics and Carries the Fight. By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, July 8.—Fidel La Barba, king of the flyweight boxers, today was among the battle-thinned ranks of those who have successfully the fighting bids of their challengers. In a furious 10-round battle here last night the champion, defending his crown for the first time since August, took a referee's decision over George Rivers, Perea of San Francisco and Los Angeles. As in two previous fights, La Barba outclassed the little Mexican, but his third victory was more sensational than the others. Rivers gave the champion at least six rounds and his challenger anything from one to three.

Champion Fights. To those who had seen La Barba in his previous fights, the battle came as a surprise for he discarded the defensive tactics he usually employed and fought a purely offensive fight throughout and won on a ripping attack of lefts and rights to Rivers' body and head. The title aspirant, too, fought a remarkable battle, but he was unable to do much at long range. Rivers sent the titleholder to his knees in the first canto with a sharp left swing to the head, but La Barba came up without a count and got his own left working to the challenger's head. The Mexican went down in the second frame from a combination shove and blow, but also came up without taking a count. Rivers shook the titleholder to the sixth with a vicious left to the head but it failed to stop the rushing tactics which La Barba had developed. La Barba weighed 113; Rivers 110. Lieutenant Jesse Kenworthy of the Navy refereed. It was estimated that between 7500 and 8000 fans saw the scrap. The champion was guaranteed 47 1/2 per cent of the total receipts which were estimated at $32,000; Rivers received 15 per cent.

JOHN KUCK OF KANSAS BREAKS TWO 18-YEAR-OLD SHOT-PUT RECORDS

DEFEATS HOUSER AND SCHWARTZ IN WEIGHT TOSS

Special Games for Benefit of New York Cathedral Bring Out Surpassing Performances.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, July 8.—Two world's shot-put records, established 18 years ago by the late Ralph Rose, fell at a benefit meet for the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in Yankee stadium last night. Both new marks were established by John Kuck of the Kansas State Teachers' College.

After shattering Rose's record of 57 feet 3 inches for hurling the 15-pound ball by 6 3/4 inches, Kuck picked up the eight-pound pellet and tossed it 68 feet 7 1/2 inches, more than a foot beyond the old mark of Rose, 67 feet 7 inches.

Completing his triumph in the weight tests, Kuck won the 16-pound throw with a heave of 48 feet 3 1/4 inches, leading Herb Schwartz of Wisconsin, newly-crowned champion, and Bud Houser of the Hollywood A. C. in the three tests.

Also Wins Javelin Toss. Kuck won his fourth event of the meet when he hurled the javelin 204 feet 9 1/4 inches, more than 2 feet farther than the best cast of Charley Harlow of the Hollywood A. C., 202 feet 4 1/4 inches. Johnny Myrra of the Olympic A. C., was third with 195 feet 1/4 inch. Sten Peterson of Sweden, scored his first American track triumph with a victory in the 110-meter high hurdle race. He led Charles Werner of Illinois A. C. and Carl Christensen of the Newark A. C. across the line in that order, finishing in 15.2-5 seconds.

Peterson triumphed again in the 400-meter hurdles, defeating two rivals in 56.2-5 seconds. Pierre Lewden, Paris athlete, won the running high jump with a leap of 6 feet 1 inch. His best was an inch higher than that of Charles Drews of the Century A. C. was third.

After Gus Moore of the Century A. C. had made the pace up to the last 50 yards, Earl Lockhart of the Olympic Club put on a sensational burst of speed to catch him at the tape and win by a scant yard in the 1500-meter run. J. O'Neill of the Newark A. C. was third. Lockhart stepped the route in time of 4:07.3-5.

Finland Runner Triumphs. Boston in his championship debut at Philadelphia on Monday by Phil Oslif, the Haskell Indian, Ove Anderson of Finland came back to race 100 yards ahead of his nearest rival, Robert Curry of Loughlin Lyceum, in the 3000-meter grid. Anderson was clocked in 9:14.3-5. There were only three starters, J. H. Stewart of the Newark A. C., placing third.

Tom Humphrey, Indian runner of the Los Angeles A. C., brought the meet to a close with a decisive victory in a four-mile handicap event. With a start of 100 yards, Humphrey finished fully 150 yards ahead of Verne Booth of the Millrose A. A., who had a handicap of 50 yards.

Light-Heavies To Be Featured On Outdoor Card

Preliminary for Tuesday's Show Brings Jimmy Bean Against Lennon.

Frankie "Mike" Lennon, a Cleveland heavyweight boxer who has served as Johnny Risko's sparring partner in training for several important battles during the past year, has been signed by Matchmaker Leo Heyman of the Mercantile A. C., for a preliminary event on next Tuesday night's fight card at Sportsman's Park, in which Risko is slated to battle King Solomon in the 10-round headliner.

Heyman announced today that he has matched Lennon for a 10-rounder with Jimmy Bean, the Oklahoma Indian, who gave Tom Pivaca a strenuous 10-round argument at the New Coliseum last winter. Bean is now in St. Louis and has been training for several days at the National Gymnasium. Lennon is scheduled to accompany Risko on his trip from Cleveland. They are due here Saturday.

Bean May Get Spilled. Lennon's record indicates that he should prove a more formidable opponent for Bean than Pivaca, McGary, Sparks or any other fighter. The Oklahoma mauler has engaged. During three years of professional boxing Lennon has participated in 21 bouts, winning eight on knockouts and losing but one decision. His lone defeat was suffered at the hands of Walter Habert, whom he subsequently knocked out in the second round of a return match. Among his other kyo victims are Mike Delaney, Eddie Gannon, Jim Cummings and Joe Carr.

The bout between Lennon and Bean will precede another 10-round set in which Alex Rely, Peruvian Negro and light-heavyweight champion of South America, is slated to oppose Len Williams, a New York Negro. Rely, once a bitter rival of King Solomon, is now a stable mate and training partner of the Panama mauler. Prior to their invasion of the United States Rely and Solomon battled each other twice in 15-round contests. Both bouts terminated in draw decisions. The Sportsman's Park headliner will give local fans their first glimpse of the most colorful Jewish heavyweight the fight game has known since the days of Joe Choynski. Solomon, who is 24 years old, has had 15 fights since he came to the United States a little more than one year ago. Six of his bouts were in New York, where he appeared as a headliner in Madison Square Garden four times. He has fought eight times in Boston, opposing Jim Maloney in four engagements in that city.

Solomon is a mixture of Hebrew and Spanish blood. He comes from a family of 13 children, 13 of whom are boys. He is a university graduate and a linguist, being able to converse fluently in English, Spanish, French and Hebrew.

Only One Decisive Setback. Paul Berlenbach is the only fighter who has decisively beaten Solomon since his arrival in this country. In other important engagements the Panama heavyweight won decisions over Jim Maloney, Ad Stone, Sailor Maxted, Jimmy de Mave, and lost a close point verdict to Jack Sharkey. He also battled Jack Delaney to a draw in 10 rounds.

Solomon's handlers are now waging a campaign in the East to match him with Harry Willis.

SEQUI RECORDS TO BE SUBMITTED OFFICIALLY; TRACK RIGHT LENGTH

By the Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—Lawson Robertson, chairman of the Sequicentennial track committee, announced yesterday that the track at the New Municipal Stadium here is not four feet longer than it should be, as was represented, and that the records made at the senior A. A. U. meet on Monday and Tuesday, would be submitted to the record committee for acceptance. They included two world's and four A. A. U. championships records.

Robertson said that two city engineers measured the track and found it only one and one-eighth inches over a quarter mile. It was stated that Louis H. Goldsmith, Philadelphia, Chairman of the A. A. U. record committee, would recommend that the following records be accepted by the national body at its meeting next January.

440 yards relay, 41.3-5 (World's). Made by Newark A. C. Two-mile relay, 7:41.2-5 (World's). Made by Boston A. A. Half-mile run, 1:58.3-5 (A. A. U.) By H. Martin, Chicago A. A. Six-mile run, 32:31 (A. A. U.) By Phil Oslif, Haskell Indian, Lawrence, Kansas. Three-mile walk, 21:55.1-5 (A. A. U.) By Harry Kinsels, New York A. C. 120-yard high hurdles, 14.3-5 seconds (A. A. U.) By Leighton Dye, Hollywood A. C.

Colt Drops Dead. By the Associated Press. WINDSOR, Ontario, July 8.—When being pulled up following the running of the second race at Devonshire track yesterday, Lord Hanfrew, 4-year-old bay gelding owned by James Glenn of Toronto, dropped dead. Burney, who was astride him, was uninjured.

OF course he'll stamp through ordinary "sneakers"—and incidentally through dollar bills. But he'll meet his match in Keds! The new Keds—"Conquest" model—have soles of vulcanized crepe rubber—light, springy, tough soles. Actual tests have shown that these soles far outwear the soles of ordinary "sneakers"!

Keds come in all popular models—for sports, for play, for everyday wear—for men, for women, for boys, for girls—high shoes, oxfords, pumps,—with crepe soles or plain rubber soles. Keds are snuggler fitting than any other canvas rubber-soled shoes. Their uppers are durable yet light. And their special Feltex inner-soles help to keep the feet cool and comfortable even in hottest weather.

Your dealer either has genuine Keds or can get them for you. Keds come in all popular styles and at prices from $1.25 to $4.50. They are made only by

40,000 $10 SEATS AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC FOR ARMY-NAVY GAME

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 8.—Forty thousand Soldiers' Field seats at $10 each will be available to the public for the Army-Navy football game here Nov. 27. Commander Jonas Ingram of the Naval Academy announced today. The Annapolis Athletic Director is here to confer on plans for the annual classic and arrange quarters for the middles' squad of 62.

Officials already have three times more application than available seats. The Army and Navy will each dispose of 30,000 of the 100,000 tickets.

"RED" CHAPMAN WILL CLAIM KAPLAN'S TITLE

By the Associated Press. BOSTON, July 8.—Charlie Cardo, manager for "Red" Chapman, will claim the world's featherweight title, for the Chelsea fighter, he announced yesterday.

Kid Kaplan, who abdicated the throne yesterday because of inability to make the class limit of 126 pounds, was to have fought Chapman at Long Island City on July 27, with his crown at stake. The contracts were signed, and forfeit checks of $2,000 apiece provided.

The recipe for your Bread

Flour, milk, shortening, sugar, yeast, salt—

Here are the simple ingredients every good bread recipe calls for. How is the recipe for Certified Bread different?

Here is an illustration.

The recipe for Certified Bread does not call simply for "milk." It calls for milk with a certain proportion of butter fat in it—with just the right degree

of richness to make the best bread.
And every bit of milk which goes into Certified Bread must measure up to these requirements.

So it is with every other ingredient used. Each is tested in a special Testing Kitchen before it goes to make a single loaf of Certified Bread. No wonder Certified is the only bread used in thousands of homes today!

SAY MISSOURI CLARK WAS NOT SENATOR

Witnesses in Suit Over Copper King's Estate Deny Claims of Women to Property.

By the Associated Press.
BUTTE, Mont., July 8.—Testimony that the father of three women who ask for daughters' shares in the estate of the late Senator William Andrews Clark,
of Montana, was not the Montana capitalist and statesman, but one William Anderson Clark, of Stew-artsville, Mo., is part of the court record in the trial at which the three seek a portion of the late copper king's $47,000,000 estate.

Such evidence was offered by four defense witnesses yesterday
in an attempt to refute the allegations of Mrs. Addie L. Clark Miller of Denver and Mrs. Effie Clark
McWilliams, and Mrs. Alma Clark
Hines of Missouri, that Senator Clark was their father by an early marriage in Missouri and that he later deserted his wife and children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cattrell, of Amfity, Mo., the latter claiming to be the plaintiff's aunt, both testified that the Montana Clark and the Missouri Clark were not the same as did William T. Clark, of Apache, Okla., who in a deposition
said he was the Stewartsville Clark's nephew. Mary Ann Carroll, of Clarksdale, Mo., who said
she was a niece of the claimant's father, also said he was not the Montana Clark.

Charles W. Clark, son of the late Senator and one of the lega-

tees, told of some of the details of his father's life. When questioned as to the name of Effie Ella Clark that appears in the family Bible belonging to the Montana family, he said that he knew of no Ella Clark or Effie Clark. The plaintiffs say that in the Bible, is Mrs. Effie Clark McWilliams.

astounding—one thin woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days.

Sometimes people who have been ailing
for years find in McCoy's just the tonic and building agent needed. Take the case of E. S. Dumas, Arkansas, for instance—but better read his letter. It will interest you.

Dear Sir: "About 6 years ago I became ill, suffering with what I called indigestion. Nothing that I would eat would properly digest. I was in a critical condition. I soon began losing increase in weight was reduced to 127 lbs.
Nothing that I took would do me any good, so I had almost lost all hope until a few days ago I saw your McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets advertised in the Arkansas Gazette. I offered one box. I then weighed 127—now after two weeks I weigh 137, a gain of 10 pounds—your tablets are wonderful.

You can buy a box of McCoy's at Woolf-Wilson Drug Store or any drug store anywhere—50 tablets 60 cents—advice to put on weight, build up your health and improve your looks right away.
If you aren't joyfully satisfied with results after 30 days, get your money back. Ask for McCoy's.

NEW DIRECTORS NAMED FOR WESTERN PACIFIC

Changes Made After Announcement of Dominant Control by Arthur Curtis James.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, July 8.—The recent acquisition of a dominant interest in the Western Pacific Railroad by Arthur Curtis James, internationally known yachtsman and financier, resulted yesterday in announcement of sweeping changes in the directorate and executive committee of the road.

At the same time it announced that sponsors of the company are undertaking a program of co-operation with the road's eastern connections in addition to improving its own competitive position by developing the 227-mile system between Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

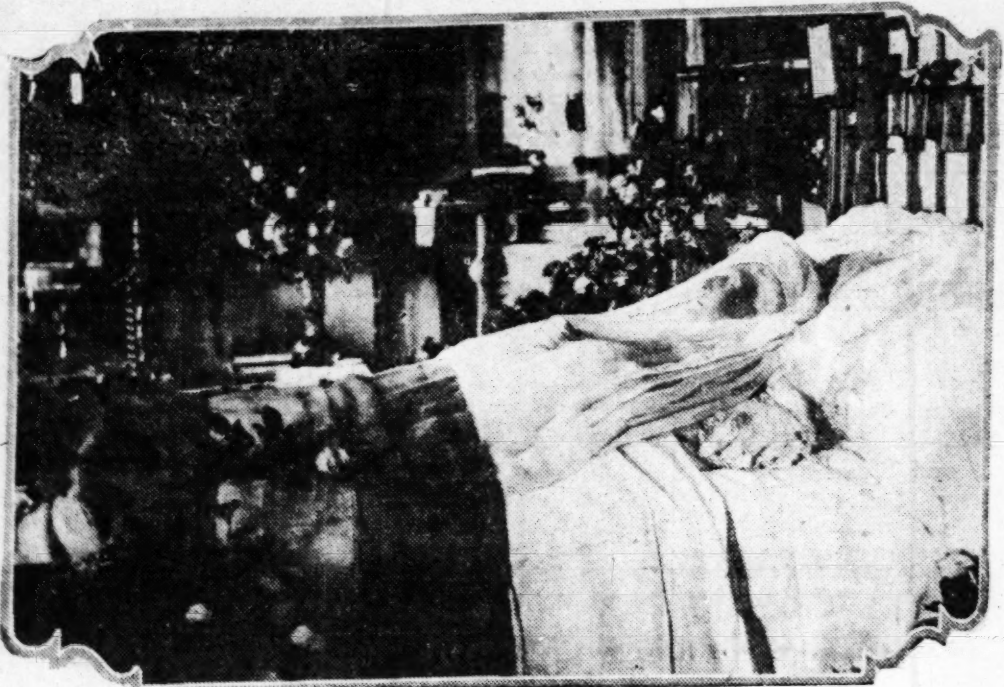

The new directors are James, said to be the country's largest owner of railroad stocks, T. M. Schumacher, Winthrop W. Aldrich, Lyman Rhoades, Hale Holden and James E. Gorman. The group represents a strikingly powerful army of railroad and financial interests.

Represent Rockefeller.
Schumacher, long associated with the James interests, was formerly president of the El Paso and Southwestern. He recently resigned as operating vice-president of the Southern Pacific. Aldrich, brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller Jr., is an attorney and represents the Rockefeller interests on the directorate, as does Rhoades, who is a vice president of the Equitable Trust Co.

To Open Denver Gateway.
Holden is president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and Gorman, president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific. It is planned later to elect L. W. Baldwin, president of the Missouri Pacific, to the directorate of the Western Pacific.

The new road's new executive committee consists of Schumacher, chairman; Alvin W. Krech, Alrich, James and ex-officio, C. M. Levey, president of the company. The retiring members of the board and of the executive committee are J. B. Dennis, F. H. Ecker and George W. Murray.

Backers of the road intend to open up the Denver gateway to all Eastern connections on an equal basis. Heretofore Missouri Pacific is understood to have been favored because of its joint ownership with Western Pacific of the Denver and Rio Grande Western.

Captain Killed, Schooner Drifts.
By the Associated Press.
NORFOLK, Va., July 8.—Capt. Frank K. Perkins of Blue Hill, Me., master of the American schooner Cora F. Cressy, it was learned here today, was killed aboard that vessel some time Tuesday in a fall into the chain locker. With the death of the skipper the ship was left without a navigator and was found adrift and taken in tow by the coast guard cutter Mascoutin, some distance off the Virginia coast. She was en route from Boston to Norfolk in ballast to load a cargo of coal.

CHICAGO GREETED GEN. NOBILE

Pilot of Norge, With Dog That Flew Over Pole, Welcomed.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—Major-General Umberto Nobile, Italian designer and pilot of the Norge on its flight over the North Pole, and his dog, "Titina," today received a warm welcome to Chicago, a city with an Italian population greater than that of Venice.

Nobile, five members of the Norge's crew and his dog, the first to fly over the North Pole, were greeted by Chevalier Leopoldo Zucchini, Italian Consul General, an Italian band and a throng of Italian-Americans. Several black shirts, emblematic of the Fascists, were observed in the crowd. Gen. Nobile will remain in Chicago three days. He plans to sail from New York, July 24, for Italy.

ONLY ZITHER FACTORY IN U. S.

IS AT WASHINGTON, MO.

St. Louisian Ordered Instrument From Germany and Found Out.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Mo., July 8.—The eighth congress of the United Zither Players of America meets in New York City, Oct. 15 to 18. The meeting is of peculiar interest to Missourians because the only zither factory in the United States is located in Missouri, here in Washington, and the congress was organized here in September, 1912. Henry Wormsbacher is president and A. K. Pahner director of the congress.

During the meeting a contest will be held to determine the best quarter and the best zither soloist. Music is sent out in advance so that rehearsals may be held. The German clubs in New York City will entertain the visitors.

The zither factory at Washington was established 65 years ago by Franz Schwarzer, a native of Austria. The Missouri factory produces the finest instruments in the world. Every piece of material is shaped by hand. While the plant produces certain stock models, most of the instruments are made upon special order. A. W. Schepp and Albert A. Hesse design the instruments, which are shipped all over the world. Admiral Hugh Rodman plays a zither made at Washington, Mo. Lieut. Keller broke the silence in the wilds of Sumatra with a Schwarzer zither when he went there to observe an eclipse of the sun.

In recent years the factory here has sent zithers to Chile by submarine, to the interior of Alaska by dog sled, and to every section of the United States and Europe. Recently a St. Louisian ordered a zither from Germany and upon receiving it found that it was made in Washington, Mo., 50 miles away.

DAWES GUEST OF HONOR AT SALEM TERCENTENARY

Vice President Speaks on Constitution and Deplores Tendency to Rule of the Crowd.

By the Associated Press.
SALEM, Mass., July 8.—The city's tercentenary celebration reached its climax with a parade of 11,000 marchers, reviewed by Vice President Dawes. Dawes was a guest of honor last night at a tercentenary banquet in the State Armory, and he and United States Senator Butler were among the speakers. Senator Butler read a message of greeting from President Coolidge.

Dawes, in his address, hailed the founders of Salem as the kind of men who gave this country its Constitution. It was a Constitution, he said, that "makes certain government action on the sound and mature judgment of the people. I realize more and more what the Constitution means to us, for we live today in the time of the rule of the crowd, the time of the demagogue."

From the Constitution, Dawes swung to radio, which he asserted was "going to be, in my opinion, one of the greatest safeguards of American constitutional government. The political blatherskite and demagogue appeals to the mind of the crowd through its emotions, but his radio audience of millions of people are unable to hear or be swayed by his emotional clatter. Over the radio the emotion of the people must be reached through the mind."

To Reopen Baking Powder Inquiry.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—With Commissioner Van Fleet refraining from voting on the ground that the procedure was irregular, the Federal Trade Commission has decided to reopen the Royal Baking Powder Co. case, in which it held that the slogan, "No Alum—No Bitter Taste," was not an unfair method of competition. Announcement was made that the proceedings would be reopened, as proposed by counsel for the commission, solely for the purpose of taking testimony with regard to charges of misleading and anonymous advertising.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE TO KEEP CENTENNIAL

Dr. H. N. McCracken, President of Vassar, to Speak at Ceremony Next Spring.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. CHARLES, MO., July 8.—Dr. Henry Noble McCracken, president of Vassar College, has been secured as the chief speaker at the centennial celebration of Lindenwood College here next May 28 to 31. Dr. McCracken will speak on the morning of May 30 on "The Significance of 100 Years of Educational History." At the same program Dr. Herbert S. Hadley, chancellor of Washington University, St. Louis, and Dr. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the University of Missouri, also will speak.

Lindenwood was founded in 1827 by Maj. and Mrs. George Sibley and was the first school for girls west of the Mississippi River. In 1831 ground was broken for a log cabin to accommodate 30 girls. In 1853 the Legislature of Missouri granted the school a charter, under which it still operates tax free. In 1870 the control of the school passed to the Presbyterian Synod of Missouri. Sibley Hall, a three-story brick building which still forms the nucleus of the college, was erected in 1869. In 1914 Col. James Gay Butler and his wife, Margaret Leggett Butler, of St. Louis, gave their fortune of several millions of dollars to the upbuilding of Lindenwood. At that time Dr. John L. Roemer, then pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in St. Louis, was made president of the school.

With adequate financial backing the college took on new life. New buildings were erected and the educational standards were raised. The board of directors established a four-year college curriculum. In 1920 the school was received into the Missouri College Union; in 1921 into the North Central Association; and in 1924 into the Association of American Colleges.

Lindenwood had an enrollment of 490 students during the past year. In honor of the centennial next year the alumnae and students are raising $100,000 for the Mary Easton Sibley scholarship fund, to perpetuate the memory of the founder of the college.

MAN SAILING AROUND WORLD ALONE ARRIVES AT SUMATRA

Alain Gerbault Completes Perilous Trip from Tahiti to Pooa Islands in Two Months.
PARIS, July 8.—Alain Gerbault, former French tennis champion and wealthy amateur yachtsman sailing around the world alone in a small-cabin 15-ton cat-rigged yacht, has just reached the Pooa Islands off Sumatra after a stormy voyage from Tahiti.

Gerbault thrilled France two years ago by crossing the Atlantic alone. His boat, Flame Crest, immediately became famous. Gerbault ultimately passed through the Panama Canal and reached Tahiti after two perilous months. There he repaired and refitted the Flame Crest and started for the Dutch East Indies, where he has just arrived. At sea the Frenchman lives on canned goods and fish which he catches. He sleeps with sails set and rudder lashed.

Gerbault has a select library of travel, history and philosophy in his cabin which helps him pass the time.

Canada to Open Highway
By the Associated Press.
OTTAWA, Ont., July 8.—Canada's new motor road from Vancouver to Vancouver will be completed July 15 with the completion of a 100-mile stretch between Hope and Ashcroft. B. C. A. W. Campbell, Commissioner of Highways, announced today. The new highway will be 1500 miles long and connect with the 6500 mile "Trans Canada" which touches three national parks in Canada and ends in the United States.

President Coolidge Says
"The feeling of independence that comes with home ownership is one of the powerful incentives to high civic usefulness." The first step to acquiring this feeling is reading the Post-Dispatch "Real Estate" columns.

"Jim, I believe they are having a better time than we are going to have"

Why Should Husband and Wife Leave Their Happy Home?

FAMILIARITY with one's home not infrequently—and for no real reason of surroundings—breeds discontent—and, arm in arm, night after night, husband and wife go far afield for the good time they could far better have in their own home.

Stop to think of the day when you first converted empty and unadorned rooms into a home. With what joy you surveyed your achievement!

Year by year you have added a little here and there until at last your home is complete in appointment and abounding with comfort—a sanctuary rich in tender memories and redolent with happy associations—a fine expression of your inner life.

And then you leave all this—for what?

Music is the lure that has drawn you over your threshold into the bright lights beyond, and it is the lack of music in your home that has brought about this unrest and wanderlust.

With a Piano of your own you may always have the music you crave, the bright lights will be just as gay under your own roof-tree, and casual calls by your friends will become enjoyable visits.

If no one in your home has learned to play a Piano, there is the Player-Piano with its repertory of more than five thousand different musical compositions, from which you may play any of the old favorites and the new, popular pieces.

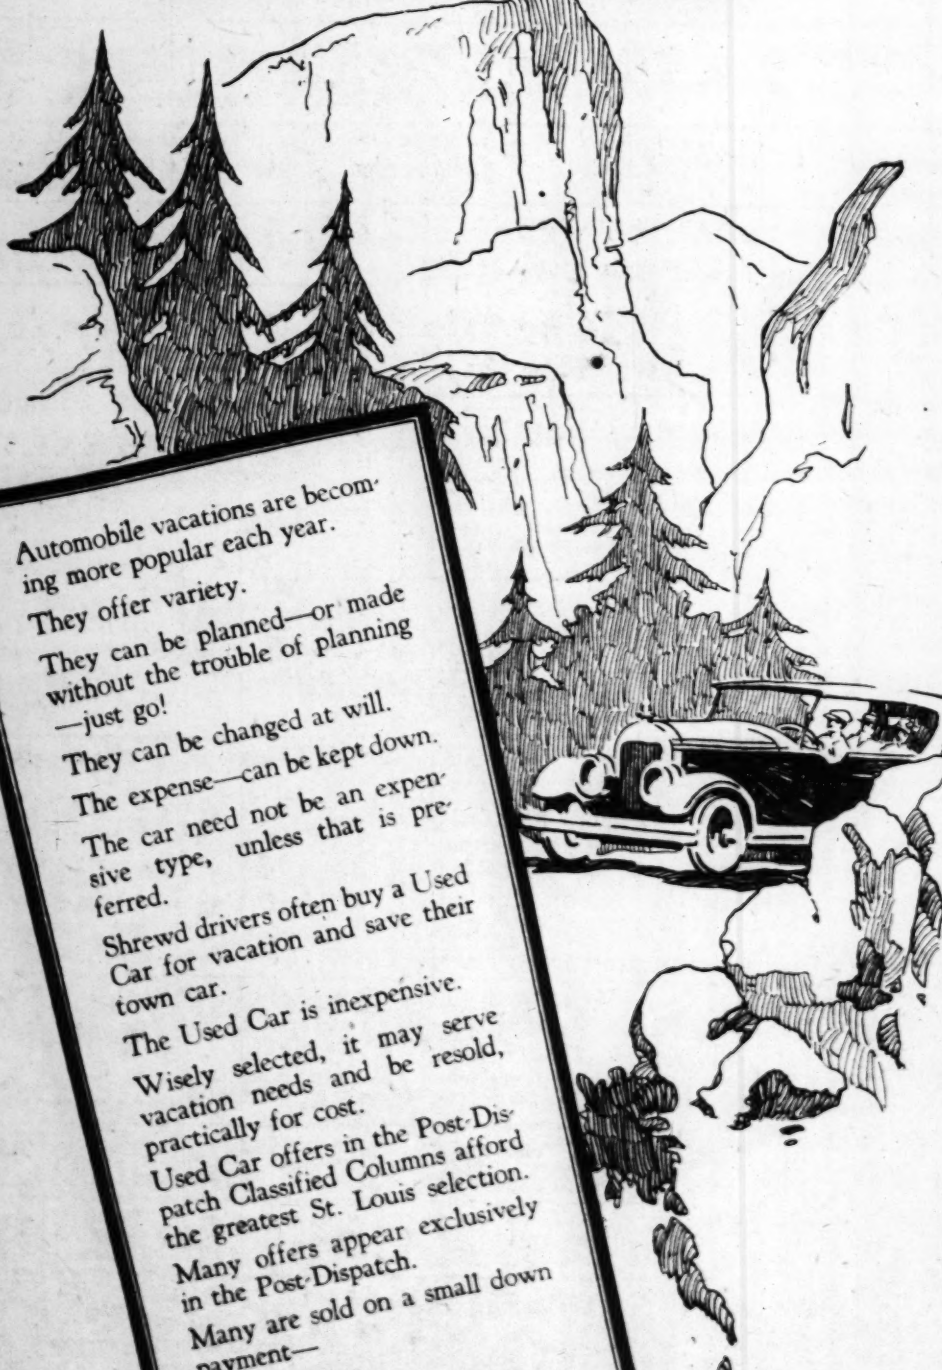

Thus with music in your home, discontent is replaced by contentment, aimlessness is succeeded by interest, and waning companionship is quickened into a wealth of love.

Buy a Piano or a Player-Piano. Choose one of standard make, as it is a purchase to be of inestimable value to you for many years. Buy of a good house where the service is known to be dependable.

Sales are made on convenient terms. If you have a Piano or Phonograph you wish to trade in, a just allowance will be made for it.

Vacation— with a Car

Automobile vacations are becoming more popular each year. They offer variety. They can be planned—or made without the trouble of planning—just go! They can be changed at will. The expense—can be kept down. The car need not be an expensive type, unless that is preferred. Shrewd drivers often buy a Used Car for vacation and save their town car. The Used Car is inexpensive. Wisely selected, it may serve vacation needs and be resold, practically for cost. Used Car offers in the Post-Dispatch Classified Columns afford the greatest St. Louis selection. Many offers appear exclusively in the Post-Dispatch. Many are sold on a small down payment—And on terms. It's vacation time—NOW! Get a car!

During May the Post-Dispatch printed 4008 more Classified Automobile Advertisements than all the other St. Louis newspapers combined. MA in 1111.

BOY HOME AFTER THREE YEARS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
OSWEGO, Kan.—Mystery surrounds the whereabouts of Paul Hughes, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hughes, of this city, who disappeared in 1923. Paul disappeared without saying a word. He was 12 years old when he left home. The other day a cement mixer firm sent a crew here. Paul was with them. He gives no reason for his long, silent absence. He has been gone to school in Mexico for two years. Efforts to find the boy had failed when suddenly appeared.

U. S. TO SELL THE LEVIATHAN

Shipping Board Proposes to Sell Largest Steamship Lines

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Preliminary steps have been taken by the Shipping Board toward the sale to private interests of the largest two Government-owned steamship lines, the United States Lines and the American Merchant Line, both operating out of New York on transatlantic routes.

The board directed its Ship Sales Committee to prepare recommendations and an advertisement covering the proposals for the sale. The United States Lines operate, among other ships, the giant Leviathan, with a gross tonnage of 59,956, as well as two other former German liners, the George Washington and the Republic. It also has the American-built steamers President Harding and President Roosevelt and the former German liner, now named the America, which was seriously damaged by fire while undergoing repairs at Newport News.

Auto Licenses Found in Lot

Three sets of State license plates with city plates attached were turned over to police yesterday by Christ Litzinger of 1616 Quendo avenue, St. Louis County. He said his son found them in a vacant lot across from his home, together with some fire chains and other automobile accessories. It is thought that they were abandoned there by automobile thieves.

TAWA, Oct. 7.—Canadian trade with the United States increased 16.9 per cent during the fiscal year ending March 31 as was announced today by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The total trade for the period ended March 31, 1925, was $608,984,552, while for the same period ending March 31 last year was $519,650,746. Imports from the U.S. were $158,713,584. Canada has the largest favorable trade balance per capita of any country in the world, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports for the year completed this date. Exports to the U.S. amounted to $450,270,968, compared with an import total of $161,557,384 for the year of 1924-25. Exports to the United States for the year just finished were $485,830,786, according to figures released yesterday.

PRICES WRECKLESS ON CURB EXCHANGE

Specialties attracted considerable attention through the greater part of the day. New Jersey Zinc responded to a small demand and attained a new high for the period, 10 1/2. The price of the stock of the United States Gypsum was active and regained about 4 points.

There was a lack of animation in the market for most of the day. The price of the first Erie Pipe, reflecting a movement of pipe shares on the Stock Exchange, declined 1/2 point.

Curtiss Aircraft moved up on the strength of a report that the company had been selected as a standard for British Aircraft. The stock advanced close to 4 points from the previous closing level.

Most of the transactions in the balance of the list were without special interest.

Oils developed heaviness after the opening, as a result of a cut in the price of Pennsylvania crude of 25c a barrel, and though the gasoline price, in some cases, advanced. American shares were dull and about steady.

Standard Oil issues were fairly active through the greater part of the session, without material price change.

Utilities were active, and moved in a slightly higher range. There was little feature to the trade in this department due to the scattered interest.

Mining shares were less active and continued without special feature. The leading shares were the same as last week, and again were led by the Kay Copper.

Dry Goods Market Review.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The cotton goods market was active today. Spring quotations were unchanged at 7c for 64 60s, and decline of 1/8c at 7 1/2c for 68 72s. The raw silk market was quiet.

FARMING WITH GASOLINE
Kansas Raises 1760-Acre Crop
With Power Exclusively.
By the Associated Press.
HUTCHINSON, Kan., July 8.—
Tom Gray, farmer near here, raised a 1760-acre crop of wheat this year with gasoline power exclusively.

There is not a horse or mule on the farm. Gasoline tractors pulled plows, drills and discs across the fields. Four big tractors and three combines cut and threshed it. A fleet of motor trucks hauled the grain to market. The total yield was more than 45,000 bushels.

RIVER-FRONT SQUATTER KILLS ANOTHER IN FEUD

J. W. Trigg Shoots William Seng in Dispute Over Rights
at Venice, Ill.

On the low bank of the Mississippi River at Venice, Ill., is a colony of squatters who live in shanties built in the form of houseboats. In one such shanty lived John W. Trigg, 32 years old, a river-front squatter for 40 years. In the next shanty, for two years, lived William Seng, 35. Each lived alone and each felt a bitter hatred for the other. Petty disputes over "rights" filled the two years they were neighbors.

Monday last things approached a climax when Seng got out his shotgun and fired it from his porch. The charge entered Trigg's shack and buckshot scattered on the floor. Seng declared he was celebrating the Fourth of July and had intended to shoot into the air when his weapon discharged accidentally.

Trigg, however, would not accept the explanation. He brooded over the occurrence until yesterday, when he caused his neighbor's arrest. Seng remained in jail until 5:45 p. m., when he found a bondsman. He left the jail and was walking home when at Main and Ferry streets he met his enemy. No words were exchanged according to witnesses. Trigg reached into his pocket and drew a revolver. He fired three shots at Seng and killed him. One bullet pierced Seng's heart, another entered his right temple. The third clipped his ear and then struck a 2-year-old girl who was playing on the sidewalk. She was not seriously hurt.

Trigg ran away and was found later in his houseboat. He said he had thrown the revolver away. He was held without bond pending an inquest today.

Wealthy New Yorker Declines to Sign Complaint Against Former Woman Fellow Employee.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—Frederick Rowland Hazard declined to appear as complainant against a man and wife charged with suspicion of attempted extortion against him and the case was dropped yesterday.

Hazard, a wealthy tax accountant and son of the late president of the Solvay Process Co., caused the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fosnaugh after receiving letters which demanded $5000 on penalty of "starting the works."

Mrs. Fosnaugh was a former fellow employee of Hazard's and during the time they worked together it was said that he befriended her, making her gifts estimated as high as $20,000. Later she went to California, where she purchased real estate and married her present husband, a movie stunt aviator.

During June, Hazard received three letters signed with Mrs. Fosnaugh's name, demanding $5000. In one of them the threat was made that unless the money was forthcoming, Mrs. Fosnaugh's first husband would "start the works." The letters did not elaborate on what the threat meant.

Hazard made an appointment to meet the Fosnaughs in Grand Central Terminal. He kept the appointment with detectives and Fosnaugh was arrested. In a taxi cab outside the station Mrs. Fosnaugh was found waiting and she also was held.

Mrs. Fosnaugh was said to have made a full confession, laying the blame for the plot on her husband. The case was called and Hazard took the stand. He answered preliminary questions as to his identity and address and then spoke directly to the court:

"I don't want to be the complainant in this case," he said. "If your honor please, I would rather not sign any complaint." The magistrate replied that Hazard was within his rights and as there was no other complainant the Fosnaughs were dismissed.

Man Ends Life With Poison.
William Gemmer, 32 years old, a shoe salesman, was found dead in bed, an empty bottle that had contained poison beside him. In a room he occupied at 4482 Penrose street at 4 p. m. yesterday. A note in the room asked that a sister, Mrs. Louise Mergel, 4123 A. Clarence avenue, be notified. She told policemen Gemmer had been divorced from his wife, Mrs. Viola Schopp, 1235 Wright street, a year ago and had brooded over the affair.

Boy 11, Shot When at Play.
Clarence McCormack, 11 years old, of 4635A Evans avenue, was shot in the right arm by a small caliber rifle bullet yesterday, when he was playing in the rear of 4515W Easton avenue. Police were told by the boy's brother, Leroy McCormack Jr., that he had seen two Negro boys scuffling with a rifle which had been discharged near where his brother had been shot.

Woman Arrested in Beer Raid.
An anonymous letter, saying that beer was sold during the noon hour at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 32 years old, of 3709 LaSalle street, prompted police to raid the place yesterday. They reported finding six men drinking beer from cans. Mrs. Duncan was arrested and 23 quarts of beer were confiscated.

Article 6 of a Series.
The institution of sun baths for young children in any community is not easy to establish. Tradition and convention are opposed to them for generations. Climatic conditions in many parts of this country make warm clothing a necessity during the winter season. During the summer and fall, however, babies and little children wear more clothing than is necessary. One has only to take a baby or a little child's outfit and watch him play in the sun to know that it is convention which demands that he be so dressed. Tradition also might injure a baby's face. If the baby's face is in the sun or if the older child wears a cotton shade hat in hot weather, the eyes will not be injured. Old traditions and conventions are hard to break. New traditions and conventions must be established by small groups and by the rest of the community.

Danny Finds He Has a Neighbor

THIS is, perhaps, easier done by the little people of the Green Meadows than by human folk. It is a privilege that they all have. Yet, strangely enough, often they do not take advantage of it. Even when they have dangerous neighbors they will remain rather than move. You see, in many of these little people there is a love of home surroundings so great that it will even overcome fear.

When Danny Meadow Mouse discovered that he had a neighbor under the bathhouse at the seashore where he had hidden he was startled. Foolishly, he had spoken aloud. He had said, "There must be a lot to see here," and a voice had replied, "There is." It was bad enough to be startled, but it was worse to discover who the speaker was. It was a Skunk. Yes, sir, it was a Skunk. It wasn't Jimmy Skunk, whom Danny had known back at Farmer

"I'm Jimmy Skunk," replied his neighbor.
Brown's for this one was nearly all black. Danny saw this in the first hurried glance. He scurried across to the farther side, for he knew that a plump Meadow Mouse is sometimes enjoyed by members of the Skunk family. "Who are you?" he squeaked.
"I'm Jimmy Skunk," replied his neighbor.

"You're not, either," squeaked Danny. "I left Jimmy Skunk back at Farmer Brown's, and he has a big, white stripe down the middle of his back."
"That's all right," replied the stranger good-naturedly. "I'm Jimmy Skunk just the same. I may not be the Jimmy you know, but I'm Jimmy just the same. Anyway, that is what people call me. Who are you and where did you come from?"

"I'm Danny Meadow Mouse and I came from the Green Meadows," replied Danny.
"How'd you get here?" inquired Jimmy Skunk.
"I was brought here in a great Man Bird," replied Danny, and told Jimmy Skunk what had happened. Jimmy knew what the great Man Bird was, for he often had seen airplanes and had learned to know that they were not to be feared; that they were man-made and not real birds.
"Are you going to stay?" asked Jimmy.
"I don't know," replied Danny. "I don't know as it is safe to stay."

SAYINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON

The Higher Education.
ALL no man educated, until he's wed.
For the Bachelor accounteth himself wise in the ways of the world.

But the Bridegroom acquireth more Useful Knowledge in one year of matrimony, than in all the days of his single blessedness.

Behold, he learneth many strange and astonishing things.

He learneth, that, while a damsel may be content to be clothed in beauty, a WIFE requirith imported hats and "ensembles" from Paris.

Likewise, that a woman payeth more for the hole in the neck of an evening gown than for the cloth in a walking skirt.

He discovereth that the foot which he admired before marriage must be shod; and that the cost of a woman's shoes would support a good bootlegger in luxury.

He learneth that while the eight-hour law may be the law of the Land, the Baby doth not recognize it.

And that it is easier to renounce a game of poker and simpler to forego a morning at golf than to face the questionnaire that followeth them.

That marriage is the point at which a woman ceaseth to say, "I understand you, darling!"—and beginneth to say, "I see THROUGH you!"

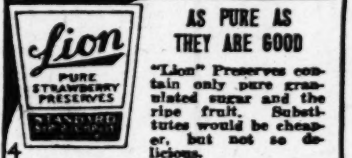

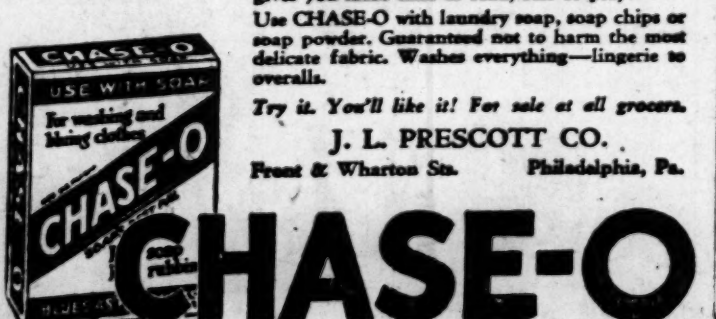

That a good alibi in time saveth nine poor ones, next morning; and that a little check is more potent than much appeasance.

That meal hours are more sacred than Masonic vows; and that dinner is always "ready" just as a man hath started something.

Go to. A Single-Footer is wise in his own conceit. But a Married Man getteth a Higher Education and getteth it SPEEDILY!

His choice Puffed Wheat when it isn't Puffed Rice

MEN like Benjamin Bird, men whose minds and bodies both must be active and efficient all day, every day, need right food for breakfast.

That's why so many folks eat Puffed Wheat or Puffed Rice. There are no other cereals like them. They are steam puffed to 8 times natural size, then richly oven toasted. They digest easily and turn quickly to energy. The flavor is like toasted nutmeats, only richer. The Puffed Wheat contains approximately 20% bran, besides important whole wheat elements. The rice embodies the vigor-building properties of fine carbohydrate food, which means so much to health.

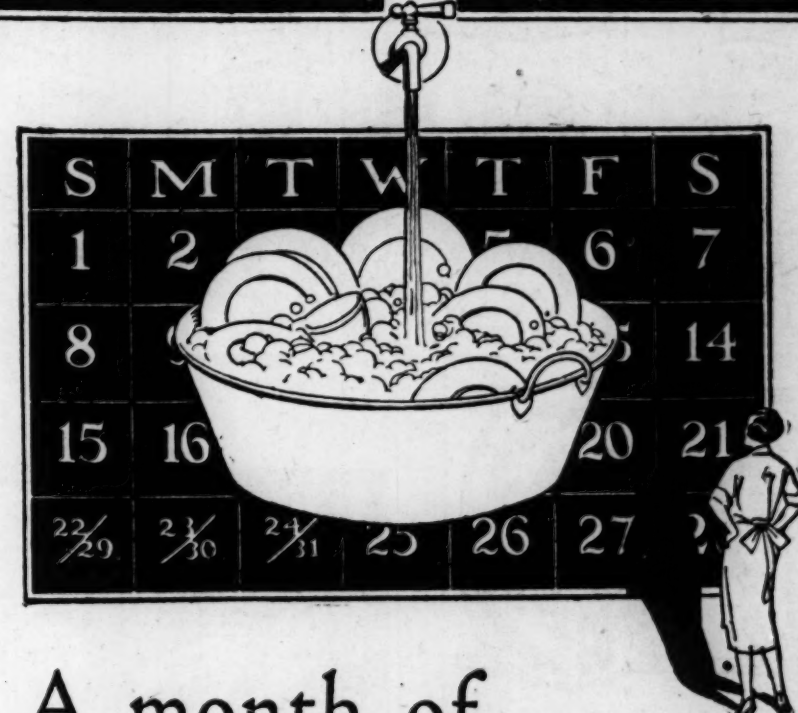

Different in every way—in taste, form and deliciousness—they mark the rare combination of food that's "good" for you but that you eat because you love it. Children love them like confections.

Today get Quaker Puffed Wheat—or Quaker Puffed Rice—at your grocer's. They're the "something different" that you crave.

replied Jimmy carelessly.
"And aren't there any Owls here?"
"I suppose so, but they don't bother me," replied Jimmy.
"I don't suppose there are any Foxes?" said Danny in an anxious-sounding voice.

"Why, of course there are," replied Jimmy Skunk. "You don't suppose that with such good living as can be found along the seashore there would be no Foxes, do you? But, as I said before, don't worry."

Just you keep along with me and there will be nothing to fear."
"Thank you," squeaked Danny. But inside he felt anything but sure that there was nothing to fear.

$580,733 AWARD
BY U. S. TO ESTABLISH
OF J. W. THOMPSON

Court of Claims Settles $800,000 Claim of Sale of Steamer Gut Hell to Government in War

GOVERNMENT DENIES HIS TITLE TO SHIP

Sum Allowed Is Half
Amount Sued for Plus Interest—Appeal Still Pending

The estate of John W. Thompson, wealthy St. Louis contractor, has been increased largely by a decision of the United States Court of Claims at Washington, awarding Thompson an additional $580,733 in settlement of his $800,000 claim against the Government over purchase of the salvaged oil tanker Gut Hell.

Thompson died May 2, while on bond pending decision on application for probation from two-year prison sentence in Veterans' Bureau fraud conspiracy case. His estate was willed to widow and daughter.

The Gut Hell was built in England in 1888 at a cost of $150,000. In April 1912, when it was operated by the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, it was sunk in a collision in the Mississippi River near Bayou Rouge, La., in the vicinity of Thompson's gravel grounds, Proffit Island.

$700,000 for Salvaged Ship.

The tanker was abandoned a derelict after unsuccessful attempts at salvage. Four years later it was salvaged by the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey. The ship was taken to New Orleans navy yard for repairs and in August, 1918, was commissioned by the Navy. The Navy board of appraisal set a price of $700,000 on the ship, and the sum was accepted by Thompson. A month later, however, Thompson notified the Secretary of the Navy that $700,000 was insufficient and in March, 1919, filed suit for an additional $800,000, contending he had spent $764,395.84 to raise and repair the tanker and had been offered of $1,500,000 before the Navy seized it for war purposes.

Denied Thompson's Title.

The Government's brief, opposing Thompson's claim for an additional $800,000, argued that Thompson had no title to the derelict tanker, and even if he had, it was not a ship. Thompson had accepted $700,000 in full payment for the tanker and this was the Atlantic Towing Co. $425,000 for the ship and had expended an additional $140,000 for repairs. The argument was that the Navy found the salvaged ship a liability because the hull was rusty and unsafe. Testimony in support of the alleged unseaworthiness of the ship was taken by the Government in various ports.

Thompson's claim was filed by his original counsel, former U. S. Senator Joseph W. Folk, and when it was refused by the Navy, it was taken to the Supreme Court by the law firm of Laughlin, Frazier, Biddett & Russell. Formerly a trip to London to the deposition of Commander H. Hammer, naval attaché of the United States Embassy, who had been in charge of the New Orleans navy yard when the Gut Hell was repaired there.

The decision by the Court of Claims awarding half of the claim of $800,000, plus interest of $172,123, is subject to review by the United States Supreme Court should the claimant or the Government appeal. Attorney Laughlin today said he considered the award insufficient, but had decided whether an appeal would be taken.

The award probably will be included in the first deficiency bill to be presented to Congress in November in December.

Naval Men Abroad Free From Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Senate and House of Representatives today passed a bill which exempts from the income tax for one year under the new revenue law of A. W. Greer, general counsel of the Internal Revenue Bureau, the income of naval personnel who are stationed on other shore stations or are aboard ship. It does not apply to the navy personnel in Alaska.

THE PASSING SHOW.

SEE where Congress has adjourned.

The members feeling they have earned

A merited vacation.

But, as election time is near. Upon the hustings they'll appear To thrill the voting nation.

They toil and mull in Washington. But find their work is never done. As homeward they are faring; Though weary from the constant grind.

Upon arrival home they find Their fences need repairing.

But, let's have done with politics And various and sundry tricks Of wily politicians; And give a little thought to sport And things that are of more importance—

The Browns and Cards' positions.

The Browns are coming from behind And after while we hope to find Them up among the leaders. The Cards are in the pennant race

And holding a strategic place To overhaul the speedsters.

QUITE SO.

Philadelphia celebrated the Fourth by winning four games of ball. That's our idea of a Glorious Fourth.

The Cards played to 21,000 paid and split a double-header with Cin.
